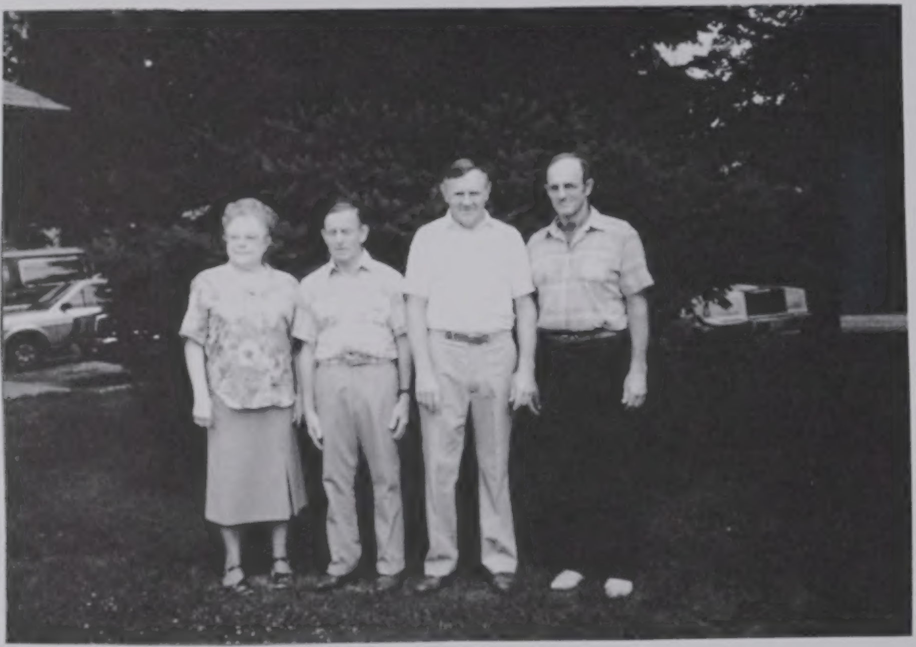
DEDICATION

I hereby dedicate this first edition of COFFMAN - CALLAHAN family history to my only sister Ruth Elizabeth Coffman Garrett. Her zeal for excellence has always been an inspiration to me. Thank you Ruth for being the sister that everyone wishes for but only a few are fortunate to have.



Ruth Coffman Garrett, Ralph, Hugh and Robert Coffman

FOREWARD

Shortly after retiring in 1983, the death of an aunt seemed to open many interesting doors to learning more about my ancestors. This led, among other things, to a distinct goal of identifying the descendents of Jacob Coffman who settled in Washington County, Ohio about 1796.

During a period of four years, many interesting discoveries led to a typewritten list of twenty pages of names. Among those cousins who were very helpful in this research were Bonnie Slutter, Lois Weed, Helen Williams, Bethine Messick, Gilbert Coffman, Kenneth Coffman, Arthur Coffman and Clarence Bird. A local German genealogist Ernest Thode was responsible for tracing the German heritage of Jacob Coffman. Also, thanks to Washington County genealogist Jerry Barker Devol, who has been especially helpful by supplying information he has uncovered concerning the Coffman family in early Washington County, Ohio.

In early 1988, it suddenly occured to me that there were many close ties between the Jacob Coffman family and the John Callahan family that came to Washington County about 1800 from New Castle County, Delaware. Two children of Jacob Coffman married two of the John Callahan children. So, away we went again with an added goal of identifying the descendents of John Callahan. Among those cousins who have been very helpful include Ann Callahan, Agnes Stapf, Linda Strick, Maxine Cunningham, Catherine Sams, Nick and Kathryn Bloom and Charles Cook. The writings of Clyde Callahan have also been helpful. These records are by no means complete. There remains much work to be done...a family history is never finished.

All of this small talk leads us to a very serious undertaking...the publishing of the book The Coffman - Callahan Clan of Washington County, Ohio.

CHAPTER I - JACOB COFFMAN (JOHANN JACOB KAUFFMANN)

Williams History of Washington County, Ohio 1788-1881 page 638 includes the following: "Jacob Coffman was a native of Germany. He came to America when quite young, remained for a time at Lancaster, Pennsylvania. He came to Washington County in 1795 and settled in Marietta Township, afterward moving to Warren Township. In 1834 he moved to Hardin County, Ohio where he died. Father of five children...Jacob, Polly, Fannie, Deborah and Thomas."

I consider the above information as family folklore...some of which is not completely accurate. However, the major part of the above statement is on target. As you read further, the true information will be revealed.

Johann Jacob Kauffmann was born 27 April 1766 in Muellheim, the son of Joh (Ann) Georg Kauffmann, master carpenter, born 4 December 1733 in Muellheim, died 6 February 1814 in Muellheim. Married 19 October 1762 in Muellheim to Anna Catharina Vetter, daughter of H(An)s Jacob Vetter, farmer, born 31 March 1739 in Muellheim. Muellheim is located in the former Grand Duchy of Baden, located on the Rhine River in Germany, population 12, 482 in 1981. ZIP code D-7840. The above information was researched by Ernest Thode, Rt 7, Box 306, Kern Road, Marietta, Ohio for Hugh Coffman in August, 1983.

Our Jacob Kauffmann was on the ship Columbia arriving at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania 8 September 1792 with Captain William Maley. Source: Strassburger & Hinke's Pennsylvania German Pioneers passenger lists.

Bonnie Slutter researched Manor Township, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania census records for the years between Jacob's arrival in Philadelphia and his arrival in Washington County, Ohio but no information surfaced as to his exact whereabouts during this time. Also, we have not located any information as to the identity of his wife or their marriage date or place. In the 1880 census of Washington County, Ohio, Thomas Coffman listed Baden as the birthplace of his father and Pennsylvania as the birthplace of his mother.

The birth date of the first born Jacob M. Coffman is listed as 1 March 1796 with this birth assumed to have taken place at Marietta, Ohio.

We challenge future Coffman family genealogists to research the identity of the mother of Jacob Coffman's children.

Kauffmann's Sailing for America...After leaving Holland, the vessels sailed to England, probably docked at London's West India Company wharves, and after clearance was given, sailed to Cowes, on the Isle of Wright or Portsmouth nearby. Then came the long two or more months across the Atlantic. These ships were crowded with passengers whose quarters and food were filthy. Sickness and death too often cut the load of passengers to half the number who set out. Later, laws became more severe, giving the passengers some protection from the inhuman greed of the shipowners. Source... page xxii and xxiii of the Kauffman-Coffman Lineages.

During the year 1795 great numbers of emigrants came down the Ohio River. All of the emigrants who owned or desired to own land in the Ohio Company's purchase stopped at Marietta, Ohio prior to making permanent locations. This influx of settlers followed the close of the Indian War. The close of the war also brought joy almost unspeakable to the long imprisoned and sorely harassed settlers in the Ohio Company purchase. Each settler received 100 acres on condition that he build a house within three years, set out 70 fruit trees and clear 20 acres of land and provide for defense against the Indians. These 100 acre tracts were referred to as "donation tract lands".

Jacob Coffman received one of the above mentioned 100 acre tracts in the Rainbow Creek Allotment...Lot 70, Range 10, Town 4, Section 5. The deed recorded in Washington County, Ohio Volume 4, Page 211 dated 7 March 1796. Grantee...Rufus Putnam & Co. This plat located in Wooster Township.

Now for an explanation as to how the spelling became Coffman. Most of the county officials in courthouses in this country were English and spelled according to sound. Those communities where English always predominated tended to favor Coffman. Our Johann Jacob Kauffmann became Jacob Coffman.

The 1 June 1800 listing of free male inhabitants of Marietta Township, Washington County, Ohio over 21 years of age totaled 172. Included in this list was Jacob Coughman (sp).

The 1807 enumeration of the white male inhabitants in Marietta Township over the age of 21 years totaled 341. Included in this list was our Jacob Coffman.

All five children of Jacob Coffman gave their birthplace as Marietta, Ohio. Researcher Linda Strick has stated...in 1797 Jacob Coffman was working as a laborer in Marietta.

The 1810 census of Wooster Township, Washington County, Ohio lists our family as follows: Jacob Coffman

1 male under 10	Thomas
1 male age 10-15	Jacob M.
1 male age 26-45	JACOB
2 females under 10	Fannie, Deborah
1 female age 10-15	Mariah (Polly)
1 female age 26-45	JACOB's wife

Wooster Township, Washington County, Ohio was formed 1806.

The 1820 census of Wooster Township, Washington County, Ohio lists our family as follows: Jacob Coffman

1 male age 10-15	Thomas
1 male over 45	JACOB
1 female age 16-25	Deborah
1 female over 45	JACOB's wife

The daughter Fannie must have died or married. No information found to prove either circumstance. Jacob M. Coffman had married 5 September 1817 to Mary Dolan. Mariah (Polly) Coffman had married William Callahan 11 January 1818. The name of Wooster Township was changed to Watertown Township 6 December 1824.

During 1823, the country was deluged with rain in June and July, with very little thunder and lightning and no heavy winds. Every spot that would hold water was filled with it. Fields of wheat and corn were ruined and grass rotted. The land exhaled noxious vapors, so that people passing were obliged to put their hands to their noses and hasten through some disgusting spots. The rains ceased the last of August, but the systems of the people had become charged with miasma. The disease was more malignant and fatal in the country than in town. This account is given here to perhaps explain the demise of the wife of our Jacob Coffman. She was not included in the 1830 census of this family.

The 1830 census of Watertown Township, Washington County, Ohio lists Jacob Coffman, age 60 and under 70 living alone. Thomas Coffman had married 18 June 1829 to Rebecca Callahan and Deborah Coffman had married 7 August 1821 to William Winchell.

Jacob Coffman (remarried) to Jane Harrison 4 June 1833. Both of Watertown Township, Washington County, Ohio. Identity of Jane Harrison unknown.

Jacob Coffman sold his 100 acres of land on 3 June 1834 to Betsey and Joseph Woodmansee for five hundred dollars. Deed is recorded in Volume 24, page 200-201 of Washington County, Ohio land records. Both Jacob and Jane signed the deed with a X mark.

As indicated earlier, family folklore indicated that Jacob Coffman moved to Hardin County, Ohio in 1834. Research by Lois Weed reveals the following: Jacob Coffman purchased 80 acres on 7 August 1834 from R.W. Hamblin in Delaware Township, Hancock County, Ohio for two hundred fifty dollars. Section 35, Range 11, Town 2S recorded in Volume I, page 307 of Hancock County records. Delaware Township is on the south border of Hancock County, adjoining Hardin County. Hancock County land records further reveal that this identical tract was titled back to Reuben W. Hamblin 6 February 1836 and recorded in Volume 2 page 71. On January 16, 1837 the 80 acres was again transferred back to Jacob Coffman and recorded in Volume 2 page 138. Each time the value of the transaction was $250. An examination of the 7 August 1834 deed reveales that after the initial use of the first name Jacob, all other references use the name Joseph Coffman. Perhaps the issuance of a new deed 16 January 1837 was for the purpose of correcting this error.

On Monday, June 20, 1988 Arthur and Mary Coffman of Waterford and Hugh and Betty Coffman traveled to Kenton, Ohio (Hardin County seat). We were joined by cousin Maxine and Bill Robinson of Kenton and drove to the location of the Jacob Coffman 80 acre farm in Delaware Township, Hancock County, Ohio. We drove north from Kenton on Route 53 to Forest, then Route 37 north towards Mt. Blanchard, then west on County Road 2 and north on Delaware Township 186. The land is located along Township 186 as you leave County Road 2. We then drove into Findlay and visited the Hancock County Courthouse and Library.

The 1840 census of Delaware Township, Hancock County, Ohio lists the following:
Jacob Kauffman

1 male age 40 and under 50	JACOB
2 females age 16 and under 20	?	?
1 female age 40 and under 50	JANE

The age here does not jibe for our Jacob, as he would have been age 74. Some folks speculate that this is the son Jacob M. Coffman and his family. No clues as to the identity of the two younger females included in this listing. More puzzles for future Coffman family historians!

On 4 April 1845, the 80 acres of land owned by Jacob Coffman was transferred as follows: 40 acres to Thomas M. Callahan (grandson of Jacob Coffman) recorded Volume 5, page 299 for two hundred dollars and 40 acres to Sophia Harrison (step daughter ? of Jacob) recorded Volume 5, page 509 for two hundred dollars. Residence of Jacob Coffman listed as Hardin County. Jacob signed the deed with his X mark so he was still living. No signature of second wife Jane Coffman on the deeds. Residence of Thomas Callahan listed as Hancock County. Residence of Sophia Harrison listed as Hardin County. No further trace has been found of Jacob Coffman or his second wife Jane Harrison Coffman.

Hardin County, Ohio was formed from old Indian Territory 1 April 1820 but was not officially organized until 8 January 1833. Hancock County was formed 1 April 1820. Source: Howe's Historical Collection of Ohio, Volume I.

The Hardin County, Ohio Courthouse was destroyed by fire 4 March 1853 and all records were destroyed.

The 1850 census of Delaware Township, Hancock County, Ohio lists the following:

Martin Callahan	age	27	Wagon maker
Mary	wife	25
Aaron		3
Orange		1
Charles	brother	21

See the Callahan section of this book for more information on this family. Thomas Miles, William Martin and Charles Callahan were brothers and sons of William and Mariah (Polly) Coffman Callahan.

The 1875 Atlas of Delaware Township, Hancock County, Ohio lists J. Naus and W. Naus as owners of the above mentioned 80 acres of land.

CHAPTER II - JOHN CALLAHAN

The New Castle County, Delaware census of 1800 lists this family as follows:

JOHN CALLAHAN	2 males under age 10	William, Nathaniel
	1 male age 10-15	?
	1 male age 26-45	JOHN
	3 females under age 10	? ? ?
	1 female age 16-25	Anna
	1 female age 26-45	ESTHER

Some previous CALLAHAN family records identified this as the 1790 census. Correspondance dated 19 June 1990 from Dr. Constance J. Cooper, Manuscript Librarian with the Historical Society of Delaware, Wilmington, Delaware, includes the following information:

1. The probate record of John Staats mentions that John Callahan married Esther Staats circa 1784. Esther being the widow of John Staats.

2. The reconstructed state census of 1782, the reconstructed census for 1790 and the 1800 census list John Callahan living in Appoquinimink Hundred of New Castle County, Delaware.

3. The 1800 census of Appoquinimink Hundred reveal neighbors of John Callahan included the following family heads:
   Gidion Emory Esq., Elisha Staats and Widow Conner

4. The 1790 census (reconstructed) of Delaware also included the following:
   Edward Callaghan Kent County Murderkill Hundred
   Dennis Callahan Sussex County Nanticoke Hundred

5. Genealogical data from Salem County, New Jersey includes the following under the KIDD family name with a Mannington address:
   John, will 3-6-1777; probated 4-14-1777. Wife Mary. Children Sarah. Sister Elizabeth. Brother-in-law John Callahan. Lib 18, p. 416.

New Jersey marriage records reveal that Elizabeth Kidd and John Callahan were married 1 June 1765.

Many unanswered questions remain about the identity and ancestory of our JOHN CALLAHAN and his spouse. In the 1880 census of Washington County, Ohio, Dorcas/Callahan Dolan (who we list as a daughter of John, indicated that both her parents were born in Maryland. Rebecca Callahan Coffman in this same census, indicated that her father John was born in Delaware and her mother was born in Pennsylvania. We challenge future family historians to search for answers to the missing pieces of this puzzle.

Recent research of New Castle County, Delaware land records by Charles Cook reveal that John Callahan purchased land there from Elijah Staats on 7 October 1800 and sold the 24 acres three days later. See Chapter IX of this book for more details on these transactions.

John Callahan of New Castle County, Delaware, purchased 100 acres of land in Washington County, Ohio from Elijah Staats of Fayette County, Pennsylvania on 10 October 1800 for two hundred dollars. This transaction recorded Volume 8, page 70. Lot 26, Town 5, Range 10, Waterford Township. On 7 August 1806 John Callahan of Waterford Township purchased from John Nobles of Salem Township an additional 100 acres for two hundred dollars. Recorded Volume 9, page 447. Lot 36, Town 4, Range 10. This 100 acre tract was later transferred to Nathaniel Callahan (son of John) for two hundred dollars. Recorded Volume 17, page 317 and dated 1 June 1819.

The 1810 census of Washington County, Ohio lists the John Callyhan (sp) family living in Waterford Township as follows:

3 males under age 10	John Jr., ? ?
1 male age 16-25	William
1 male over 45	JOHN
2 females under age 10	Mary, Rebecca
1 female age 16-25	?
1 female age 26-45	ESTHER

Daughter Anna Callahan had married 27 August 1806 in Washington County to Abel H. Gates. Nathaniel Callahan had married in 1810 to Anna Lawrence.

The 1820 census of Washington County, Ohio lists the John Callahan family in Waterford Township as follows:

2 males under age 10	Emery, ?
1 male age 10-15	John Jr.
1 male over 45	JOHN
2 females under age 10	Dorcas, Susan
1 female age 10-15	Rebecca
1 female age 16-25	Mary
1 female over 45	ESTHER

William Callahan had married Mariah (Polly) Coffman on 11 January 1818 in Washington County. Mary Callahan married Levi Chadwick on 19 August 1825 in Washington County. John Callahan Jr. married Maria(Mary Ann) Hagerman in Washington County on 5 November 1826.

The 1830 census of Waterford Township, Washington County, Ohio lists the John Callahan family as follows:

1 male age 15-20	Emery
1 male age 60-70	JOHN
1 female age 5-9	Susan
1 female age 10-14	Dorcas
1 female age 20-29	Rebecca
1 female age 50-59	ESTHER

Rebecca Callahan had married 18 June 1829 to Thomas Coffman in Washington County. Dorcas Callahan married 3 September 1835 in Washington County to William Dolan Jr.

Volume 25 page 290 of Washington County, Ohio land records show the transfer of 100 acres from John Callahan to Emery Callahan (son of John) in Waterford Township for four hundred dollars. Volume 25, page 438 includes the following agreement signed by John and Emery: "I agree to support said John Callahan in a good and comfortable manner with victuals, clothing and nursing through his natural life so long as he will live with the said Emery Callahan. The above lease shall be void otherwise to remain in full force and virtue in law." The land transfer and lease agreement were each dated 10 June 1835. The date of John Callahan's death unknown.

The Washington County, Ohio Probate Court records, Volume 6, page 478 and Volume 7, page 59 reveal the appointment in August, 1843 of John Callahan Jr. as executor of his father's estate. The 17 August 1843 issue of MARIETTA INTELLIGENCER the following notice: All persons having claims against the estate of John Calihan (sp) deceased will present them within one year from this date legally authenticated; and all persons indebted are requested to make immediate payment. John Callahan, Adm'r.

Susan Callahan married 3 March 1842 in Washington County, Ohio to Milton Willis. This couple bore no children.

On May 20, 1991, Nick and Katie Bloom located information in the Fort Wayne, Indiana LDS library as follows: Lydia Callahan, daughter of John and Ester Callahan, born 31 December 1783 in Delaware. Married David Ridgway 29 November 1803 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. She died 23 March 1881. This would be the first born child of our John Callahan.

A letter received from Charles Cook dated 21 June 1992 included the following tidbits he had received from a paid researcher in Delaware:

1. John Callahan married 15 December 1795...Dover, Delaware marriage files.
2. Land transactions involving John Callahan include the name of his wife being recorded as Amy, Mary and even Reuhamy in the various New Castle County, Delaware deeds circa 1800.

We need to keep in mind that all of John and Esther Callahan's children did not necessarily come to Washington County, Ohio in 1800 with them. Some family historians also question the long time span between the first born Lydia (31 December 1783) and the youngest child Susan (1820), a total of 36 years of child bearing. Perhaps John Callahan's first ? wife Esther died in Delaware prior to the family moving to Ohio and the Ohio born children are of a second (younger) wife.

Children born to John Callahan include the following:

1. Lydia Callahan was born 31 December 1783 at New Castle County, Delaware. Married 29 November 1803 at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania to David Ridgway.
2. Anna Callahan was born 1786 at New Castle County, Delaware Married 27 August 1806 at Washington County, Ohio to Abel H. Gates.
3. William Callahan born 1787 at New Castle County, Delaware Married 11 January 1818 at Washington County, Ohio to Mariah (Polly) Coffman.
4. Nathaniel Callahan was born 20 January 1788 at New Castle County, Delaware. He married 1810 to Anna Lawrence.
5. Mary Callahan was born 1803 at Waterford Township, Washington County, Ohio. Married 19 August 1825 to Levi Chadwick.
6. John Callahan Jr. was born 1805 at Waterford Township, Washington County, Ohio. Married 5 November 1826 to Mariah (Mary Ann) Hagerman.
7. Rebecca Callahan was born 1807 at Waterford Township, Washington County, Ohio. Married 18 June 1829 to Thomas C. Coffman.
8. Emery H. Callahan was born 1815 at Waterford Township, Washington County, Ohio. Married Jane ? .
9. Dorcas Callahan was born 9 August 1818 at Waterford Township, Washington County, Ohio. Married 3 September 1835 to William Dolan Jr.
10. Susan Callahan was born 1820 at Waterford Township, Washington County, Ohio. Married 3 March 1842 to Milton Willis.

CHAPTER III A - JACOB M. COFFMAN

Jacob M. Coffman was born 1 March 1796 at Marietta, Ohio the oldest child of our Jacob Coffman. He married 5 September 1817 in Washington County, Ohio to Mary (Polly) Dolan (Doleman). She was born 4 May 1802 in Pennsylvania to John Dolan. Jacob M. Coffman died 2 June 1868 and Polly died 29 May 1868. Both are buried in the Watertown Cemetery, Washington County, Ohio. Jacob owned a forty acre farm in Union Township, Washington County. Section 26, Town 3 and Range 9. Union Township was dissolved 1 April 1878 and where Jacob farmed became Watertown Township. The Union Township record book of livestock ear notches dated 1 July 1844 shows...Number 29, Jacob M. Coffman, a square fork in the right ear and a slit in the underside of same. Source: The original record book is the property of the Washington County Historical Society, Marietta, Ohio.

Children born to this couple include the following:

1. Mary Ann Coffman born 1820 and married 29 October 1843 to Ephraim Mezerve.

2. Samantha Jane Coffman born 26 March 1825 and married 26 August 1850 to Charles D. Dickey.

3. Hiram E. Coffman born 1832 and married 15 May 1859 to Elizabeth A. Cheeseman.

Jacob M. Coffman's will is dated 10 May 1868, just a few weeks before he and his wife's death and is witnessed by William Deming and Milton Willis. See the Washington County, Ohio will records Volume 1, page 650-651. Excerpts from this will are as follows: I give and bequeth unto my daughter Jane Dickey and her reirs the farm on which I reside, situated in Union Township. I give and bequeth unto the children of Hiram Coffman deceased and also to Mary Ann Mezerva's children, the sum of one dollar each.

No information on the family of Ephraim and Mary Ann Mezerve has been found. The 1840 census of Watertown Village, Watertown Township, Washington County, Ohio lists the Thomas Meserve (sp) family with one male age 15 and under 20 (probably Ephraim), one male age 50-60 and one female age 15 and under 20. As indicated in the above mentioned will, there were Mezerve children. Another challenge for future Coffman genealogists!

Samantha Jane Coffman, second child of Jacob M. Coffman married Charles Dickey, son of Margaret whose maiden name is unknown. Margaret was born in Ireland in 1790 and was widow in Union Township, Washington County, Ohio in 1850. Solomon Dickey, an old and respected citizen of Union Township, died 17 March 1835. Perhaps this was the husband of Margaret and father of Charles Dickey. Charles Dickey was born 26 February 1822. Siblings included William born 1814 and Mehala born 1829.

Jane died 26 February 1899 and her husband Charles Dickey died 19 April 1908. Both are buried in the Watertown Cemetery. The brother William Dickey never married and was farm hand as shown in the 1860, 1870 and 1880 census of Fearing Township, Washington County, Ohio, working for the Caywood family. The 14 May 1840 issue of the Marietta Intelligencer reported the 9 May 1840 death of Eliza Dickey in her 26th year of consumption in Union Township, daughter of the late Solomon Dickey.

The 1880 census of Watertown Township lists the Charles Dickey family living on the 40 acre farm which Jane had inherited from her father Jacob M. Coffman. The son Hiram Dickey living with his parents. Jane lists her mother as having been born in Pennsylvania.

Children born to this couple include the following:

1. Oscar Dickey born 1852
2. George A.Dickey born 28 April 1854
   Married 13 April 1880 to Mary E. Hinton
3. Hiram Dickey born 1858

The 1870 census of Union Township lists all three sons living at home with Oscar age 18 and a stencil cutter. George A. Dickey died 5 December 1894 (age 40) and is buried in the Watertown Cemetery. A daughter of George, Blanche Ethel Dickey, age 17, married 9 February 1911 to Jesse D. Palmer, age 18 in Washington County, Ohio. She must have been born about the time of George's early death. Jesse Palmer was the son of J.A. and Emma Tompkins Palmer. No other information found about other children of George or whether Oscar and Hiram ever married. No information located as to any children of Blanche Ethel Dickey Palmer.

The youngest child of Jacob M. Coffman was Hiram E. Coffman. He married in Washington County 15 May 1859 to Elizabeth A. Cheeseman. She was born 23 May 1838 at Tiltonsville, Jefferson County, Ohio. Hiram died 1863 after about four years of marriage and is buried in Watertown Cemetery near his parents.

Two children born to this couple as follows:

1. Charles M. Coffman
2. Isabelle (Belle) Coffman

Belle Coffman was born 11 May 1859 ? at Watertown, Washington County, Ohio. She was listed as a teacher in the 1902-03 Marietta, Ohio directory living at 953 Fort Street. She never married. Her death occured 11 February 1945 in Marietta. Her obituary read...Miss. Coffman taught school in Washington County in her earlier life. For many years until her retirement she was a sales agent for a flouring mill in Loudenville and traveled extensively in the south. Survivors are her sister-in-law , Mrs. Julia Coffman, widow of Charles M. Coffman who died in Burbank, California in recent years; and a nephew and a niece, Clair Coffman and Miss Ethel Coffman of Burbank. Miss Coffman's half brother, Frank D. Davis died in 1895. The obituary lists Belle's father as being John, which is an error. Of course, her father Hiram E. Coffman had died in 1863 when Belle was just a child.

Charles M. Coffman was born circa 1860 in Watertown. He married 24 September 1885 to Julia A. Naylor West.
Three children born to this couple as follows:

1. Unnamed infant son born 19 February 1886. Dead at birth.

2. Ethel Coffman born 9 May 1887 at Harmar, Marietta, Ohio
   Never married

3. Melvin Clair Coffman

A local item in the 21 April 1897 issue of the Marietta Times tells how Charles M. Coffman, the Z & O Railroad Conductor, ruptured the tendons of one of his legs below the knee Tuesday while jumping from one car to another and will be laid up for some days with very painful injuries.

The 1901 photograph of the Marietta Police Department includes Charles. The 1912-13 Marietta, Ohio directory lists Charles M. Coffman, solicitor for the Marietta Times with his wife Julia living at 829 Front Street. The mystery of Julia's last name was solved by reading the 1880 census of Marietta Township. The John A. West family included Julia Naylor, age 18, as a servant. At the birth of their children, Julia listed her maiden name as both West and Naylor. Perhaps this explains the mystery. The West family treated her as a daughter. Between 7 April 1896 and 27 October 1908 at least eleven property transfers in Marietta, Ohio took place involving Charles and/or Julia Coffman.

Recent correspondence from family friends in Burbank, California indicate that neither Ethel or Melvin Clair Coffman ever married.

Ethel Cffman/was born 9 May 1887 at Harmar. The 1912-13 Marietta directory lists Ethel M. Coffman, musician living at 829 Front Street with her parents.

This directory lists M. Clair Coffman also living at home and employed as a clerk at Crystal Ice Company. The 1922 directory lists Melvin C. Coffman as manager of Crystal Ice Company and living with his parents at 315 [illegible] Street. As indicated above, this family moved to Burbank, California.

Elizabeth Cheeseman Coffman remarried 31 December 1867 in Washington County, Ohio to Captain Daniel W. Davis. One son Frank Delmer Davis, born to this couple. He died 1895. Captain Davis was born 7 February 1835 in Waterford Township, Ohio. He was a steamboat pilot and captain and in later life served several terms on Marietta City Council as a Democratic member from the old sixth ward. He died 11 September 1904 in Marietta. Elizabeth died 27 November 1910. Both are buried in Oak Grove Cemetery in Marietta, Ohio.

The following Washington County, Ohio marriages are listed here because further research could reveal their relationship to our Coffman line.

> Mary E. Coffman married 25 September 1888 to Charles P. Dudley of Wood County, West Virginia.
> Thomas C. Coffman of Wood County, West Virginia married 6 October 1892 to Ida Stout. He born 1870 and she born 1873.

Chapter III B - MARIAH (POLLY) COFFMAN

Mariah Coffman born circa 1800 at Marietta, Ohio the second child of our Jacob Coffman. She married William Callahan 11 January 1818 in Washington County, Ohio. William, a son of John Callahan was born in New Castle County, Delaware. Ten Children...Thomas Miles, Aaron, Wealthy, Emily, William Martin, Charles, Julia, Daniel, Sarah Emeline and ?. This family living in Watertown Township (formerly Wooster Twp.) Washington County, Ohio in 1830. Family folklore said this family moved to Delaware County, Ohio in 1833. See the Callahan section of this book for more information on this family. It is interesting to note that the obituary of daughter Wealthy indicates that her mother Mariah Coffman was the first white child born at Marietta, Ohio.

Chapter III C - FANNIE COFFMAN

Fannie Coffman born circa 1802 at Marietta, Ohio the third child of our Jacob Coffman. She was included in the 1810 census of the family but was not living with them in the 1820 census. Wheter she married or died unknown. Future historians hopefully can unravel this mystery.

Chapter III D - DEBORAH COFFMAN

Deborah Coffman born 1804 at Marietta, Ohio the fourth child of our Jacob Coffman. She married William Winchell 7 August 1821 in Washington County, Ohio. A child Amanda born about 1825. This couple was divorced 31 August 1826. Deborah remarried to Joseph Fetherby (widower) 24 November 1831. In the census of Watertown Township, Washington County, Ohio this family listed as follows:

1840 Census page 362

1 male age 70-80	Joseph Fetherby
1 female age 30-39	Deborah
1 female age 10-15	Amanda

1850 Census family # 198/201 (Barlow Township)

John Robinson		age 29

Meanus	(dau)	2

Research by Lois Weed...1860 Census, Hamilton County, Ohio, Cincinnati, Ward 14 Page 355 and 356, line 14, 32,33,34. John and Amanda Robinson and two sons Otis born 1852 and Charles born 1855. More research needed on this family to correctly identify all children of John and Amanda and their descendents.

PLATE 2

THOMAS C. COFFMAN

Thomas C. Coffman, the youngest child of our Jacob Coffman was born 8 Nov 1805 in Marietta. He married Rebecca Callahan 18 June 1829. Rebecca was the daughter of our John Callahan. On 10 October 1828, Thomas had purchased the 100 acre tract of land adjoining the 100 acre tract of land owned by his father. This acreage was purchased for $100. and is identified as Lot 64, Range 10, Town 4 and Section 5. This donation land tract had originally been drawn in the name of Simon Archer. This land was sold to Karl Wagner of Zanesville 10 December 1838 for $800. At this time, Thomas and Rebecca donated a lot of land containing two thousand five hundred square foot area to the trustees of the Salem Methodist Episcopal Church to build a Church. It is of interest to note that on 11 Dec 1988, the Salem United Methodist Church celebrated its sesquicentennial, at the same location of the above mentioned donated lot. In attendance at this 150th year celebration were Thomas Coffman descendents Arthur, Thomas and Hugh Coffman and their spouses. It is also of interest to note that descendents of Karl Wagner continuedto own the 100 acre farm - Lot 64 until recently...now owned by Hendershot family.

Washington County, Ohio land records reveal that Thomas Coffman then purchased land in what is now Warren Township, Washington County, Ohio, where he lived and farmed the remainder of his life. He served as Warren Township Trustee for fifteen successive years. Thomas died 23 January 1882 and Rebecca died 18 December 1890. Both are buried in the Bethel cemetery in Warren Township. At his death, heirs were Rebecca Coffman, widow; Henry Coffman, George W. Coffman & Sarah, Charles Coffman & Harriett, John Coffman & Jane, sons and their spouses; Sarah R. Pinkerton & Thomas, daughter and spouse. Washington County Ohio Probate Records, Vol 90, Page 138 states "also all personal property (not in the house) on the farm of Thomas Coffman, deceased, at the time of his death except one buggy and harness and ten bushels of wheat and one cow reserved by said Rebecca Coffman, widow". The 160 acre farm was disposed of as follows: 85 acres to Charles Coffman for $3000; 65 acres sold to John Pinkerton; and 10 acres sold to August Wittikind (sp).

Obituary of Thomas Coffman...from Marietta (Ohio) Register...Thursday, 2 February 1882...

Monday morning, January 16, after a very brief illness, Thomas Coffman, Esquire of Warren Township, one of the few remaining pioneers of our county, passed away. Mr. Coffman was born in Marietta, November 8 th, 1805. When he was quite young his parents moved to Warren Township and engaged in agricultural pursuits which calling he in turn chose and soon by industry and frugality became one of the solid men of the township, noted for honesty and integrity. He served as Township Trustee for 12 or 15 years, notwithstanding the party to which he belonged was largely in the minority. He leaves his wife, to whom he was married nearly fifty two years ago, and a large family of grown up children. The children are all married and profiting by their father's example are well to do and respected. He united with the M.E. Church over fifty-four years ago and continued a faithful member of the same until called away by the Master. The family have the sympathy of an unusually large circle of friends in their bereavement. All who knew Mr. Coffman feel that the church to which he belonged and the community in which he lived have lost a valuable member, one whose place it will not be easy to fill.

Additional land was purchased from William L. and Maria N. Bailey on 26 January 1867 and Luther and Nancy Perdew on 9 November 1868. At the time of his death 30 December 1889, what is today Coffman Farms Inc., approximately 250 acres, was transferred to his widow Sarah, who continued to maintain the propery until her death 9 March 1915. Children born to this union include: Joline P., Eunice, Anna, Louisa, Caroline M., Frances B., Sarah, Henrietta and Morgan B. Hopkins. It is of interest to note here that on 30 October 1989 the gravestone of Freeman Hopkins was located in a Hopkins family private cemetery located near Veto Lake in western Washington County, Ohio on property currently owned by the Matheny family. Markings on the stone indicate he died 11 March 1858 age 75 years, 2 months and 11 days.

Spelling of the Patten family name in historical accounts also use Pattin, Patton and Pattent.

Chapter III E e - JOHN QUINCY COFFMAN

John Quincy Coffman was born 28 February 1840 in Watertown Township, Washington County, Ohio the fifth child of Thomas and Rebecca Callahan Coffman. He married Jane Mellor 1 June 1862. She the daughter of Jesse S. Mellor and Mary Ann Kidwell born 9 November 1843. John Coffman purchased the 160 acre Anderson farm in Warren Township 25 January 1869 adjoining the George Coffman farm. John Coffman died 8 January 1913 and Jane died 24 June 1924. Both are buried in the Tunnel Cemetery in Warren Township. Children born to this couple include the following:

1. Elizabeth Mae Coffman born 15 July 1863

   Married 15 April 1909 to Elizabeth Drain
4. Carrie Marie Coffman born 4 March 1878
   Never married died 4 November 1918.

Now for some Jane Mellor family history...Jesse Mellor, son of Samuel Jr. and Nancy Jadon was born 14 September 1810 in Watertown Township, Washington County, Ohio. Jesse married first to Mary Ann Kidwell 22 March 1831. She was born 1810 and she died February 1844. Children born to this union include the following: Mary Ann, Columbus, Thomas Jefferson, Charles, Edward, Austin Samuel and Jane. Jesse took for his second wife Matilda Elliott on 12 July 1845. Children born to this union include: George H., David H., Johanna, Jennie and Emily. By his third wife Mrs. Ann Eliza Leach Farrish, one son Jesse L. Mellor was born 24 July 1867. Samuel Mellor Sr. and his wife Mary Corner migrated from England to America in 1795.

Chapter III E f - SARAH R. COFFMAN

Sarah R. Coffman was born circa 1844 in Warren Township, Washington County, Ohio the sixth child of Thomas and Rebecca Callahan Coffman. She married 22 June 1862 to Thomas R. Pinkerton , son of Andrew James and Mary Wilson Pinkerton. He was born in Allegheny County, Pennsylvania in 1837. The 26 June 1962 issue of the Marietta Republican included their marriage announcement as follows: By Lory F. Adams, J.P. at his office, Mr. Thomas Pinkerton of Union Township to Miss. Sarah R., daughter of Thomas Coffman of Warren Township - 22 June 1862.

He died 1891 and she died 1898 and both are buried in the Bethel Cemetery in Warren Township. Children born to this couple include the following:

1. George W. Pinkerton born 1863
   Married 27 November 1884 to Anna Cozins (sp)

2. Charles L. Pinkerton born 1866
   Married 4 October 1888 to Matilda Buck

3. Erma T. Pinkerton born 29 March 1877
   Married first ? . Married second ? .

Do not know whether any of the above marriages resulted in any progeny. More work for future family historians-

Now for smome Thomas R. Pinkerton family history...Andrew James Pinkerton was born in Pennsylvania in 1804 and his wife Mary Jane Wilson was born 1805 in Pennsylvania. Children born to this union include: William, Andrew James, Sarah, Margaret, Catharine, James, Thomas, John Josiah, Wilson, Calvert and Robert H. Pinkerton. It is believed all of these children were born in Pennsylvania with the family moving to that part of Warren Township which was formerly Union Township about 1846. Robert H. Pinkerton would have been an infant at this time. The 1850 census lists Robert H. as having been born in Ohio.

Chapter III E g and h - LUCY R. COFFMAN and MARTHA P. COFFMAN

Lucy R. Coffman was born 1847, the seventh child of Thomas and Rebecca Callahan Coffman. She died 1 September 1855 and is buried in Bethel Cemetery. Her stone indicates she was 8 years, 5 months and 24 days of age.

Martha P. Coffman was born 1849, the eighth child of Thomas and Rebecca Callahan Coffman. She died 31 August 1855 and is buried in Bethel Cemetery. Her stone indicates her age as 6 years, 1 month and 7 days.

Chapter III E i - THOMAS AUSTIN COFFMAN

Some historical accounts list Thomas Austin Coffman as a son of Thomas and Rebecca Callahan Coffman. No proof of this has ever been located. His name is listed here for future family historians to find an answer to this puzzle.

Chapter IV a - LYDIA CALLAHAN

Early work on the JOHN CALLAHAN family history indicated that there was an older daughter who had not been identified by name. While researching in the LDS Branch Library in Fort Wayne, Indiana in May 1991, Katie Bloom located the following information on Lydia Callahan: Born 31 December 1783 in Delaware to John and Ester Callahan. She married 29 November 1803 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania to David Ridgway. She died 23 March 1881. The submitter of the Lydia Callahan Ridgway information to LDS was Leota R. Saari, 34-855 Eagle Canyon Road, Palm Springs, California 92264. Katie has tried without success to contact Leota. Therefore, additional work remains for future historians! We do feel that this is a child of our John Callahan!

Chapter IV A - ANNA CALLAHAN

Anna (Nancy) Callahan was born circa 1786 in New Castle County, Delaware to John and Esther (Staats) Callahan. She came to Washington County, Ohio in 1800 with her parents. She married 27 August 1806 to Abel H. Gates in Waterford Township, Washington County, Ohio. He the son of David and Anna Hale Gates. Abel H. Gates had one son by a previous marriage, who died near Chillicothe, Ohio. Identity of first wife and name of son unknown. The 1810, 1820,and 1830 census of Roxbury Township in Washington County included this family. Roxbury Township in 1851 became a part of Morgan County, Ohio. Ten children born to this couple as follows:

1. Hester Gates born 1807
   Married first in 1826 to Aaron Grubb
   Married second to Isaac Freese

2. Nathaniel Gates born 1809
   Married 25 June 1833 to Julia Ann Cross

3. Betsy Gates born circa 1810

4. Seth Gates born 2 May 1812
   Married 15 December 1831 to Philena Farnham

5. Amy Gates born circa 1815

6. Lydia Gates born circa 1818

7. Mary Gates born circa 1821

8. Millie Gates born circa 1822

9. Anna H. Gates born 25 July 1824
   Married 5 May 1843 to Lewis R. Jones in Delaware County, Ohio

10. Rascelus Gates born 6 May 1827
    Married 26 May 1849 to Drucilla M. Ray in Delaware County, Ohio

A reading of the Delaware County, Ohio Oller Cemetery in Concord Townsip by Esther W. Powell, page 89, includes the following information: Gates, Nancy (1786-1865) wife of Albert H. Buried beside her is Rev. Rascelus Gates (1827-1905) perhaps a son. The 20 April 1905 obituary of Rev. Rascelus Gates includes the following: "He was born in Washington County, Ohio in 1826 and was the youngest child of a large family. His father, Abel Gates, died when the subject of this article was only four years of age. At the age of thirteen, with his widowed mother, he removed to Delaware County, Ohio where he worked hard to support her for years."

The Delaware County, Ohio History of the early 1900's on page 772 includes the following: "Isaac Freese was born in 1803 and lived to the age of 88 years. He married Hester Gates, who died in 1870, age 62 years. She was a daughter of Nathaniel and Nancy Gates, who came to Concord Township, Delaware County from Marietta, Ohio."

The identification of Nathaniel Gates as being the spouse of Anna (Nancy) Gates has caused much consternation among those who are researching this family line. We must keep in mind that Abel H. Gates died just after the 1830 census was taken in Washington County and Anna died in 1865 in Delaware County, Ohio. Many years had passed when the Delaware County History was published. This is yet another mystery for future historians to unravel. For the purpose of this publication, we will identiry Abel Hale Gates as being the husband of Anna Nancy Callahan.

The 1830 census of Roxbury Township, Washington County, Ohio list this family as follows:

1 male under 5 years	Rascelus
2 males 15 and uner 20	Nathaniel, Seth
1 male 50 and under 60	ABEL
2 females 5 and under 10	Anna, Mary
2 females 10 and under 15	Amy, Lydia
1 female 15 and under 20	Betsy
1 female 40 and under 50	ANNA (NANCY)

The oldest daughter Hester had already married to Aaron Grubb in Washington County, Ohio.

A publication in the Delaware County, Ohio Library includes the following information on page 419 under the heading...Delaware County Women Born Before 1801...GATES, NANCY (wife of Albert H.) (1786-1865) Oller Cemetery.

This information again brings up the question...Was Abel H. Gates and Albert H. Gates the same person?

Chapter IV B - WILLIAM CALLAHAN

William Callahan was born circa 1787 in New Castle County, Delaware to John and Esther (Staats) Callahan. He came to Washington County in 1800 with his parents. He married 11 January 1818 to Mariah (Polly) Coffman. She the daughter of our Jacob Coffman. The 1820 census lists this family living in Wooster Township and the 1830 census shows them in Watertown Township of Washington County, Ohio. Wooster Township's name was changed to Watertown Township 6 December 1824.

Family folklore says this family moved to Delaware County, Ohio about 1833. The 1840 census of Franklin County, Sharon Township, Ohio includes this family. Sharon Township of Franklin County is located next to Delaware County, Ohio.

Ten children born to this couple as follows:

1. Thomas Miles Callahan born 14 November 1818
   Married 6 October 1843 to Mary Temple

2. Aaron Callahan born circa 1820

3. Welthea Ann Callahan born circa 1821
   Married 29 September 1844 to William H. Baker

4. William Martin Callahan born 24 June 1823
   Married 22 October 1846 to Mary Ann (Nancy) Hagerman

Family folklore indicate that this family consisted of five boys and five girls. Death dates and places of burial for William and Mariah unknown.

* Recently located information...from Dr. Seth Hart Journal "William Callihan (sp) debtor to visitation and attendance at childbirth of daughter..12 February 1833.

PLATE 101

CHAPTER IV C - NATHANIEL CALLAHAN

Nathaniel Callahan was born 20 January 1788 in New Castle County, Delaware to John and Esther (Staats) Callahan. He came to Washington County, Ohio in 1800 with his parents. He married Anna Lawrence in 1810, the daughter of Ami Lawrence and Loly Scott Lawrence. Anna was born 19 November 1795 in New York state. She came to Washington County as a child with her parents. Anna died 7 June 1837 in Van Buren Township, Lagrange County, Indiana. Nathaniel married second Mrs. John (Esther) Olney 23 March 1847. No children born to this marriage. Nathaniel died 20 July 1855 in Van Buren Township, Lagrange County, Indiana.

Nathaniel Callahan was not identified in the 1810 census of Washington County, Ohio. He purchased 100 acres of land from John Callahan 1 June 1819. See Volume 17, page 317 of Washington County, Ohio land records. He sold this land to Obadiah S. Preston 15 May 1830. See Volume 21, pages 495-496. His name listed as Nathaniel M. Calahan.

The 1820 census of Waterford Township, Washington County, Ohio lists Nathan Calahan age 26-45 with 2 males under age 10; 3 females under age 10; and one female age 16-25. This listing shows them living between the families of David Gates and Peter Grub.

It is of interest to note that Nathaniel Callahan and Anna Lawrence were married in 1810 in Holmes County, Ohio. The oldest child Lola was born in Ohio in 1813. The second child Lydia was born 7 November 1814 in Green County, Ohio and the remaining children that were born prior to 1830 were born in Washington County, Ohio. This information is included here to challenge future family historians to find answers to these puzzles.

The descendents of this family spell their last name CALAHAN.

This family emigrated to White Pigeon, Michigan in 1830, remained for a short time, then came to Lagrange County, Indiana. Land in northern Indiana was open to purchase at the land office in Fort Wayne and Nathaniel Callahan, his father-in-law Ami Lawrence, his brother-in-law Asa Olney and Obediah Lawrence (either a son or brother of Ami) went from Lima to Fort Wayne on foot (60 miles), following the Indian trails to buy land. On June 13, 1831 they each purchased 80 acres of land in Lima Township, which soon became Van Buren Township. The area was referred to as the Crooked Creek settlement due to the winding nature of the Pigeon river .

The first burial ground was on Callahan's land in Section 17 where members of the Callahan family and close neighbors were buried. The cemetery has since been destroyed. The first log schoolhouse was on Callahan's land and the community also used it as a church in the early years.

History records state that Nathaniel Callahan was the father of 14 children. Handed down by descendents are the following names of twelve children:

1. Lola born 20 November 1812.
   Married 1832 to Hiram Harding

2. Lydia Callahan born 6 November 1814.
   Married 19 August 1832 to Micajah Harding.

11. Nathaniel Callahan born 17 April 1832.
    Died 6 June 1833 in Lagrange County, Indiana.

She married at Waterford, Washington County, Ohio on 19 April 1825 to a widower Levi Chadwick. His first wife was Mary McKee who he married in Athens County, Ohio 9 August 1805. Levi is listed in the 1827 enumeration of Watertown Township, Washington County. The 1830 census of Roxbury Township, Washington County lists Levi Chadwick age 40 and under 50, two males under age 5, one female age 10 and unde 15 (child by first marriage?) and one female age 20 and under 30...his wife Mary Callahan. This residence was located near the John Callahan Jr. family. Evidently Levi Chadwick was deceased. A Susan Chadwick age 12 was also listed in the census living with the Dr. Little family in Waterford Township. Dr. Seth Hart's Journal for 13 August 1846 includes the following entry...Widow Shadwick (sp), Coughman's (sp) sister, debtor to spirits for nitre and c for self...$3.00. Explanation...Mary Chadwick and Rebecca Coffman were sisters, maiden name Callahan.

Children born to Levi and Mary Callah an include the following:

In June of 1991, Kathryn Bloom discovered a CHADWICK family genealogy compiled by Mrs. Darline Chadwick Smith, 2410 Vernon Street, N. Kansas City, Missouri 64116 in 1982. I have corresponded with Darline, who is a descendent of Levi Chadwick II. She has been very helpful in providing information on the Chadwick family. Those desiring additional information should refer to her publication.

Exact date and place of death of Mary Callahan Chadwick unknown.
The American Legion Post at Beverly, Washington County, Ohio is named in honor of the first area Casualty of World War I, Russell Chadwick. His service record is listed here with the Chadwick information. No proof of his exact relationship to Levi and Mary Callahan Chadwick.

Volume 25 page 438 of Washington County, Ohio land records dated 10 June 1835 make reference to an agreement reached between Emery and his father John as to care of the elder Callahan for the remainder of his natural life. The 1860 census of Union Township, Washington County lists Emery living with his son John Callahan. His age listed as 54 years. This is an error as his age at this time would have been 44 years. Dorcas Callahan was born 9 August 1818 in Washington County, Ohio to John and Esther (Staats) Callahan. She married 3 September 1835 to William Dolan Jr. She died at Waterford, Washington County, Ohio 21 August 1890. William Dolan, a widower, died in Waterford Township 6 February 1900, age 88 years, 11 months and 22 days.

The 1850 census of Waterford Township lists this family as follows:

Emeline	12		All born Ohio
Adaline	9

Chapter IV I - SUSAN CALLAHAN

Susan Callahan was born circa 1820 in Waterford Township, Washington County, Ohio the daughter of John and Esther (Staats) Callahan. She married Milton Willis 3 March 1842. The 1850 census of Union Township, Washington County lists Milbon (sp) Willis age 29 farmer born Ohio and Susan age 28 born in Ohio. The 1860 census of Union Township lists Milton Willis age 37 farmer and Susan age 33 and Mary A. Gates age 8 living with them. The 1870 census of Union Township lists Milton Willis age 50 farmer, Susan age 48, Emily Hanson age 10 and Mary C. Willis age 2. The 1880 census of Watertown Township lists Milton Willis age 58 farmer, Amanda, wife age 46 and Mary age 11.

Washington County, Ohio marriage records show Milton Willis marrying Amanda Callahan 29 August 1878. Our Susan Callahan Willis had died during the early 1870's and Milton remarried. Milton and Susan had no children of their own but helped raise children in their home...as indicated above by census records.

Chapter IV A a - HESTER GATES

Hester Gates was born 7 June 1807 in Washington County, Ohio to Abel Hale and Anna (Nancy) Callahan Gates. She married first 17 February 1826 in Washington County, Ohio to Aaron Grubb. Two sons born to this couple prior to his death as follows:

1. Alvin Grubb born circa 1827 in Washington County, Ohio.
2. Newton Grubb born circa 1829 in Washington County, Ohio.

Hester married second 6 October 1835 in Delaware County, Ohio to Isaac Freese. Seven children born to this couple as follows:

1. Loretta Freese born 1837 in Delaware County.
   Married 17 October 1855 to Norman Collins.

2. Lavina Freese born October 1838 in Delaware County.
   Married 2 March 1856 to Jacob Newton Sager.

3. Perlina Freese born 21 December 1839 in Delaware County.
   Married 19 March 1858 to Stephen Hill Freshwater.

4. John Freese born 1841 at Delaware County.
   Married 10 September 1860 to Sarah Jane Hamilton.

5. Isaac Marion Freese born 17 July 1844 in Delaware County.
   Married 12 August 1863 to Susan Watson.

6. Anna Malissa Freese born 8 August 1845 in Delaware County.
   Married Joseph Clemeth Evans.

7. Catharine Freese born 1850 in Delaware County.
   Married John Gamble.

Hester died 31 August 1869 and Isaac Freese died 26 October 1891 age 88 years. Both living in Delaware County, Ohio at the time of their death and both are buried in Oller Cemetery, Concord Township, Delaware County, Ohio.

Now some family information on Isaac Freese. He was born 1803 in Delaware County the son of John and Mary Freese. He acquired land from his father one half mile from Bellepoint, Delaware County, on the east bank of the Scioto River. On this land he built a log cabin and there lived the Isaac and Hester Gates Freese family. Children of John and Mary Freese include the following:

1. Jacob Freese who died after settling in Illinois.
2. Isaac Freese the subject of this sketch.
3. John Freese of Concord Township, four children.
4. Abraham Freese of Concord Township, seven sons, two daughters.
5. Henry Freese of Concord Township, one child.
6. Mary Freese married Henry Oller, lived in Illinois.
7. Annie Freese married Henry Black of Scioto Township, Delaware County.

Chapter IV A b - NATHANIEL GATES

Nathaniel Gates was born circa 1809 in Washington County, Ohio to Abel H. and Anna (Nancy) Callahan Gates. He married 25 June 1833 in Washington County, Ohio to Julia Ann Cross. The 1840 census of Washington County included two Nathaniel Gates...one listed in Belpre and one listed in Warren Township. At this time no proof has been located as to which is our Nathaniel, perhaps it is the same person. Washington County, Ohio land records include the following:

> Nathaniel Gates bought one quarter acre of land in Belpreville, Lot No. 26 from Chester O. and Pauline Wedge of Belpre on 29 May 1839. Recorded Volume 33, page 21, dated 8 December 1841.

Nathaniel was a popular first name in the Gates families of Washington County. Help is needed to sort out our Nathaniel! Therefore, no listing is given of any children born to this couple. The 1900 Delaware County, Ohio History lists Nathaniel Gates as being the husband of Anna (Nancy) Gates. Of course, we feel that this is an error. However, there must have been a Nathaniel Gates somewhere on the scene for this name error to have been included in the history account of the Isaac Freese family.

Chapter IV A c - BETSY GATES

Betsy Gates was born circa 1810 in Washington County, Ohio to Abel H. and Anna (Nancy) Callahan Gates. Having difficulty finding who Betsy married etc. Washington County marriage records include the following:

1. Betsy Gates married 4 June 1816 to Samuel Loper
   She the daughter of Timothy and Susanna Gates

2. Elizabeth Gates married 24 November 1825 to Aaron Hagerman
   He the son of Peter and Mary Hagerman born circa 1805

The Betsy Gates of Marietta, Ohio is Betsy S. Shipman who married 20 October 1841 to Beman Gates of Marietta, Washington County, Ohio. Some census information indicates that Betsy is older than her brother Nathaniel, but family records ? indicate the birth order as I have them listed. Perhaps she married in Delaware County, Ohio where many of this family moved in the 1830's. Because of the above, no listing is given of any children born to Betsy Gates.

Chapter IV A d - SETH GATES

Seth Gates was born circa 1813 in Washington County, Ohio to Abel H. and Anna (Nancy) Callahan Gates. He married 15 December 1831 to Philena Farnham in Washington County, Ohio. She was born 1814 in Maine. This family listed in the 1860 census of Wesley Township, Washington County, Ohio and the 1850 census of Roxbury Township. This is probably the same property as Township lines were changed in 1851. Children born to this couple in Washington County include the following:

1. Abel H. Gates born circa 1833
   Married 19 August 1855 in Morgan County, Ohio to Emeline Baker

2. Isaac Farnham Gates born 7 September 1834
   Married 22 March 1866 in Ohio to Rachael Kindall

3. Anna Gates born circa 1840
   Married Henry Beckley

4. Leander S. Gates born 22 December 1841
   Married in Scioto Township, Delaware County, Ohio to Rhuhamah S. Beckley

5. Emmanuel Gates born circa 1845

6. Amy Gates born late 1849 or early 1850

7. Margaret Gates born circa 1851

8. Seth Gates Jr. born circa 1854

This family moved to Union County, Ohio in the early 1860's. Rev. Seth Gates was authorized to solemnize marriages in the Baptist Church in Ohio in 1863. He served the Baptist Church near Bellepoint, Concord Township, Delaware County Ohio 1865-1869. Rev. Rascelus Gates (brother of Seth) had served this Church as minister from March 1860 to March 1865. Date and location of death of Seth and Philena unknown.

Chapter IV A e - AMY GATES

Amy Gates was born circa 1815 in Washington County, Ohio to Abel H. and Anna (Nancy) Callahan Gates.

Chapter IV A f - LYDIA GATES

Lydia Gates was born circa 1818 in Washington County, Ohio to Abel H. and Anna (Nancy) Callahan Gates. She married 15 December 1831 to Elisha Witham in Washington County. This date is identical to her brother Seth's marriage to Philena Farnham. Lydia would have been 14 years of age at the time of her marriage. No further information located on this couple.

Chapter IV A g - MARY GATES

Mary Gates was born circa 1821 in Washington County, Ohio to Abel H. and Anna (Nancy) Gates.

Chapter IV A h - ANNA H. GATES

Anna H. Gates was born 5 June 1825 in Washington County, Ohio to Abel H. and Anna (Nancy) Callahan Gates. She married 5 May 1843 in Delaware County, Ohio to Lewis Rockhill Jones. He was born 5 March 1825 in Delaware County to Abraham and Sarah Lewis Jones. Lewis was a Baptist minister and farmer and bee keeper. Anna died 8 April 1882 in Illinois. Lewis died 7 February 1888 in Ohio where he was living with his sister. Burial of both is in the Hagerman Cemetery in Moultrie County, Illinois.

The 1850 census of Delaware County, Ohio lists this family as follows:

Lewis R. Jones	25	Cooper
Anna	26
Joseph	6		All born Ohio
Sarah A.	4
William	2

The 1870 census of Jonathan Creek, Moultrie County, Illinois lists this family as follows:

Lewis R. Jones	46	Farmer
Anna	45	Keeping house
Amy	14	born Illinois
Mary	10	born Illinois

The 1880 census of Lowe Township, Moultrie County, Illinois list this family as follows:

Lewis R. Jones	55	Farming - paralysis	Oh	NJ	NJ
Annie	56	Housekeeping	Oh	Ma	Oh
Price Fulton	4/12	Grandson	IL	IL	Oh
William Dial	19	Farm laborer	In	In	In

Eight children born to this couple as follows...the first five in Delaware County, Ohio and the younger three in Moultrie County, Illinois where they moved circa 1855:

1. Joseph M. Jones born 10 February 1844
   Married 13 April 1864 to Sarah Jane Leffler

2. Sarah A. Jones born 16 February 1846
   Married 1864 to Isaac Fulton

3. William George Jones born April 1848
   Married 3 October 1867 to Sarah Brackney

4. Lewis Price Jones born 8 December 1850
   Married 18 April 1868 to Jane Elizabeth Davis

5. Eliza L. Jones born circa 1852
   Married 31 October 1867 to William Smith

6. Amy E. Jones born circa 1856
   Married 28 May 1871 to George Fleming

7. Alice Jones born circa 1859
   Died 1860 in Moultrie County, Illinois

8. Mary Jane Jones born circa 1860
   Married 28 January 1877 to John R. Green

Excerpts from the will of Lewis R. Jones include the following...I do give and bequeath to my sister Mary A. Sigfried all my interest in my bees and is is further my will that my said sister with whom I reside be well and amply paid for any care and trouble I may be to her while I live, and further it is my will that all my property, monies and effects which may remain be equally divided between my lawful heirs, Joseph M. Jones, Sarah A. Fulton, William G. Jones, Lewis P. Jones, Eliza L. Smith, Amy Fleming and Mary J. Green. This will probated in Delaware County, Ohio 9 March 1888.

Now for some Jones family history. The following Jones family history charts have been provided by Dara Linelle Jones Miller. She is very interested in the Jones line and desires to collect more family history and pictures. She is a granddaughter of Barney W. Jones and may be reached at the following address:

Chapter IV A i - RASCELUS GATES

At the age of 13, with his widowed mother, he removed to Delaware County, Ohio where he worked hard to support her for years.

He married first 26 May 1849 to Drucilla Metcalf Ray. She born circa 1817 at Berkeley County, Virginia (now West Virginia). Drucilla died 14 April 1884 while living at Bellepoint, Delaware County, Ohio with burial in Oller Cemetery, Concord Township, Delaware County, Ohio.

Six children born to Rascelus and Drucilla as follows:

1. Ann Virginia Gates born 4 May 1846 at Ostrander, Delaware County, Ohio. Married 13 August 1865 to Richard E. Plunkett.

2. Hester Ellen Gates born circa 1850 at Concord Township, Delaware County, Ohio . Married 4 May 1873 to Erastus F. Stone.

4. Delia Jane Gates born circa 1855 at Concord Township. Married 18 March 1880 to James William Schoppert.

5. Sarah Edmonia Gates born 25 January 1857 at Concord Township. Married 11 February 1883 to Rev. Warren Baker.

6. Rauleigh (Rolla) Tabler Gates born circa 1858 at Concord Twp. Married to Laura Wagner.

Following the death of Drucilla in 1884, Rascelus Gates married second in 1886 to Hannah Pennypacker Jolliff. She born 12 October 1829 in Pennsylvania. She died July 1915 near York, Union County, Ohio age 85 years, 9 months and 7 days. Rev. Rascelus Gates died 20 April 1905 at Richwood, Union County, Ohio with burial in Oller Cemetery, Concord Township, Delaware County, Ohio beside his mother. When quite a young man he was converted and soon thereafter began preaching. He has to his credit the conversion of hundreds of men and women, some of whom are prominent ministers and educators. Since his second marriage in 1886 to Mrs. Hannah Joliff, he lived at Richwood. He held the Baptist Church charge in Concord Township from March 1860 to 1865 when he joined the Christian Union denomination. Among the Christian Union Churches which he served was the Leesburg Township, Union County, Ohio Church.

The following two sermons by Rev. Rascelus Gates were given at the Gates Family Reunion in 1897 and in 1899 and preserved for history by being included in the Gates Reunion Book:

> "The word 'family' may be applied appropriately in a great many ways. In it's most common use it means father, mother and children. As we celebrate it today, it means all the descendents of a certain family. In a general sense it includes the entire human race. How wise is our Heavenly Father to endow us with a special love for those of our own flesh and blood. The greatest human love is manifested in parents for their children. The second is that of the children for the parents. Third, the love we have for our kindred. Fourth, the love we have for all mankind. Now, if we today are possessed of the love already mentioned, we will have a paramount love for the Creator, who has given us all these human ties. Let our hearts bo up to God today in Thanksgiving and praise for these wonderful blessings. Each of us today ought to be better than we ever were when we last met. If we are not, it is our fault. The experiences we meet from day to day through life are intended by an Allwise Providence to make us better. If we are observing we can see the beauties of a God-Life and hatefulness of sin. I trust that our social minglings together today will be pleasant and profitable. My prayer is that the Lord will bless all the exercises of the day and that we may enjoy each others society in the highest sense."

LIFE

> "There are various kinds of life, some of which are plant, vegetable, animal and human. Vegetable life is sustained by circulation of sap. In animals, animation or vitality. In man, that state of being in which the soul and body are united. The life we are speaking of refers to the world. This life, as regards man, is made up of innumerable influences and conditions. We are all sensible of the fact that we live; but how few realize its value and final destination. But a very small percent of the human family attain to a true knowledge of the All-Wise Providence in the make-up of human life. There is such a variety of conditions which we come in contact with; for instance, we have joy and sorrow, we have health and sickness, we have success and failure; we have disappointments and bereavements, losses, crosses and discouragements. All these are common to this life. While we are battling with all these in the race of life, if we fail to see the hand of God in them, we do not realize the fact that they are necessary for our well-being, that they are ordered by an All-Wise Father, to temper and prepare us for the enjoyment of a life where those things never come. We have in our year of time, I think, quite a good illustration of human life. We have the drought and the wet seanons; we have the clouds and sunshine; we have the chilling wind and the balmy breeze, we have the frost and the mud. But all these conditions are necessary to produce a crop of vegation, grain and fruit. So all these unpleasant things in life are necessary for our enjoyment of the good which we anticipate in the life to come."

She married 19 August 1832 in Lagrange County, Indiana to Micajah Harding Jr. He was born 20 November 1812 in Wayne County, New York. The Micajah Harding Sr. family emigrated from Luzerne County, Pennsylvania to Lima Township, LaGrange County, Indiana in 1829. He was a most influential citizen filling several offices of trust in the county among them "Overseer of the Poor". After the death of his wife Betsey, he made his home with his son Micajah Jr and wife Lydia Callahan Harding until his death at age 88 in 1949. When she was 79, a granddaughter Louisa Shenk recalls that Lydia cared for her father-in-law for 40 years and that he was a grand old man. He used to go to Fort Wayne on horseback along the Indian Trails to resister land on Mongoquinong Prarie, now Mongo, Indiana. He was buried on a hill near Cedar Lake, Howe, Indiana.

The Harding family can trace it's roots to England by way of Roger Williams' early settlements in Rhode Island. President Warren G. Harding is of this hardy pioneer family. Following is an account of Micajah Harding Sr. which was published in 1929 by Forrest G. Harding of Corunna, Indiana.

Micajah Harding Sr. was the son of Captain Stephen and Amy Gardner Harding. He was born in 1761 in Colchester, Ct. Capt. Stephen Harding was in charge of Fort Jenkins on the Susquehanna River in Luzerne County, Pennsylvania at the time of the Wyoming Massacre, 3 July 1778. Benjamin and Stukley Harding were brothers of Micajah Sr. and were killed by Indians. The story of the horrible event is as follows:

" Three days before the Massacre, a small party of settlers of men and boys left Fort Jenkins and had goen to the corn field of Stephen Harding Jr. to hoe his corn. The party was composed of Benjamin, Stukley and Stephen Jr. whose father was in command of Fort Jenkins. Two Tory scouts saw the party at work and carried the news to an advance guard of Colonel John Butler's band of Rangers, Torries and Indians who were terrorizing the surrounding countryside. On the way back to the fort, the party was ambushed and overwhelmed by the Indians. John Gardner, a cousin of the Hardings, was carried off and died in captivity. The others were all killed with the exception of young Stephen Harding, who escaped into the deep woods and made his way back to the Fort with the terrible tidings. 'Remember the fate of the Hardings' was the cry that rang out through the valley as 300 settlers rallied forth from the Fort three days later to avenge the death of their comrades. That same day they met the British and Senecas, a force nearly three times their number. A fearful struggle took place. The handful of pioneers fought bravely but the odds were too great. One by one they fell. The bodies of these gallant men were taken to a burying ground near Jenkins Ferry and interred. Over their graves to this day a slab bears this phrase. SWEET BE THE SLEEP OF THOSE WHO PREFER DEATH TO SLAVERY. "

TIDBITS ABOUT THE FAMOUS LAWRENCE TIBBETT

Lawrence Tibbett, outstanding American Baritone; born 16 November 1896 at Bakersfield, California and died 15 July 1960 in New York. His real name was Tibbet, but it was accidentally misspelled when he appeared in opera, and he retained the final extra letter. His ancestry was connected with the California Gold Rush of 1849; his great-uncle was reputed to be a pioneer in the navel orange industry; Tibbett's father was a sheriff of Bakersfield who was shot dead by one of the outlaws he had hunted. His mother ran a hotel in Long Beach. Tibbett led a typical cowboy life, but dreamed of a stage career; he played parts in Shakespearian productions. During World War I he served in the U.S. Navy; after the Armistice he earned a living by singing at weddings and funerals in a male quartet. His first singing job was in Grauman's Million Dollar Theater in Los Angeles.

He made his operatic debut in New York with the Metropolitan Opera on 24 November 1923. He gave his farewell at the Metropolitan on 24 March 1950. Altogether he sang 396 times with the Metropolitan Opera in New York and 163 times on tour. He also appeared in talking pictures and during World War II sang in army camps. He was a featured singer at the inagurations of Calvin Coolidge, Herbert Hoover and Franklin D. Roosevelt.

His last stage appearance was in the musical comedy Fanny on Broadway in 1956. Tibbett's autobiography The Glory Road was published in four consecutive installments (August-November 1933) in the American Magazine. The 70 page book was privately printed, presumably to be given as gifts to the singer's friends.

Off the stage the baritone's chief interest is in his family and in his rural abode in Wilton, Connecticut which bears the name of Honeywell. There he raises chickens, other fowl and vegetables and fruits. Golfing and swimming number him among their entusiasts.

The 1850 census of Watertown Township, Washington County, Ohio lists Harriett, age 15, the fourth child of Emery H. and Jane Callahan family. Marriage records of Washington County list the marriage of William J. Vincent to our Harriett Callahan on 22 April 1858 by Lloyd F. Adams, J. P. The 1860 census of Waterford Township, Washington County lists this family as follows:

William J. Vincent	29	Farmer
Harriett	25
Clarence M.	2
Willis E.	6/12

While in the Washington County Library in Marietta, Ohio in June 1992, I came across a family history book titled "Vincent-Coley Family" compiled by Hubert C. Vincent in February, 1940. This book included the following information on this family...George W. Vincent married for hisfirst wife Rachel Wilson. She the daughter of Elijah and Rebecca Nulton Wilson. Rachel Wilson was born 9 September 1810 and died 16 December 1853. Children of this couple included the following:

1. William Jackson Vincent born 17 October 1830 and died 8 November 1906
2. Henrietta Vincent born 1 November 1832
3. Narcissa Vincent born 9 September 1843
4. Charlotte T. Vincent born 1 October 1836 and died 29 March 1891
5. Laura A. Vincent born 19 May 1838 and died young
6. Martha A. Vincent born 1 May 1840 and died 22 July 1893

7. Hiram W. Vincent born 3 December 1843 and died 23 October 1907
8. Charles W. Vincent born 29 June 1845 and died 6 September 1876
9. Infant daughter born and died 25 April 1847
10. Eliza Alice Vincent born 12 May 1848
11. John Oliver Vincent born 5 June 1850
12. Frank Pierce Vincent born 28 July 1853 and died 11 August 1926

George W. Vincent bought the old home farm on Righteous Ridge from his father John Vincent. Ths above listed children were all born on this farm near Waterford, Ohio. As mentioned Rachel Wilson Vincent died 16 December 1853 and was buried in Beckett cemetery. On 28 August 1856, George W. Vincent married for his second wife Czarina Buchanan Phillips, a widow with six children. To George W. Vincent and Czarina Phillips were born the following:

1. Asa Olney Vincent born 14 August 1857 and died 28 September 1858
2. James L. Orr Vincent born 13 January 1859 and died 24 October 1862
3. George Grant Vincent born 26 July 1860 and died July 1899
4. Mary A. Vincent born 11 February 1862

The six Phillips children developed a close relationship with the Vincent children. Mary, the youngest of the Vincent children, wrote in 1933,,,"My father was just 50 years of age when I was born and there were grandchildren older than I. The older Vincent children were married and gone. Many of them had died before I was born." Twelve children from their home at one time went to school. When the war came to save the Union, six soldiers from this family joined the Army.

John, the father of George W. Vincent, died without a will and Asa Vincent, the youngest son, bought out the other heirs.. The first deed is dated 1865 and the last 1872. These deeds list the heirs. The farm consisted of 91 acres. In 1878, George W. Vincent bought 50 acres off the west end of the tract and moved there to make his home, having sold the old Lot 1 farm to his son Charles W. Vincent who never lived on the place but died in Montana the very year he bought the place. It changed hands several times until bought by Henry Ruble who lives there now (1940). Thus the old farm which provided a living for so many Vincents and the old house which had given shelter to many, passed into other hands.

The oldest son of George W. Vincent was William Jackson Vincent who married for his first wife Pamelia Stump, both of Waterford Township on 2 March 1854. He then married Harriett Callahan (the subject of this sketch) 22 April 1858. She the daughter of Emery H. and Jane Callahan. To this couple were born the following:

1. Mary E. Vincent born 15 January 1862 and died 18 November 1862
2. William Jackson Vincent born 8 May 1864
3. Martha A. Vincent born 22 May 1866 and died 20 April 1902
4. John T. Vincent born 10 March 1870
5. Lucy A. Vincent born 18 October 1872 and died 2 September 1910

William was known as Jack and was of course the oldest of the family. He was 5 feet and 8 inches tall with sandy hair and complexion and blue eyes. On 4 January 1864 he enlisted in the Union Army and was assigned to Company E, 2nd Virginia Calvary, which with statehood of West Virginia became 2nd West Virginia Calvary. He later was transferred to Company D and was there when the war closed. After the war he engaged in farming and ran a sawmill for a while. Harriett, his wife and the mother of his children, died 10 October 1883 and was buried at Mt. Carmel where she and her husband were members of the Church. He married again on 17 May 1884 to Mrs. Lydia Ann Murphy. He died in Circleville, Ohio and was buried beside Harriett at Mt. Carmel. His widow Lydia died September 1912.

William Jackson Vincent Jr. married Nancy Tutts, daughter of George and Matilda Tutts. They were married in Hocking County, Ohio circa 1880. To them was born Cahrles Vincent born 2 April 1892 and died 1918. Nancy died in 1895 and is buried in Circleville, Ohio. William Jr. next married Maudie Brown, daughter of Joseph Brown of Pike County, Ohio. She was born 1868 in Pike County. They had no children and in 1940 were living on a farm near Chillicothe, Ohio.

Martha Vincent married Charles Nicker. To them were born Ethel, Mary, Pearly and Roy Nicker. No other information available.

Lucy A. Vincent married Charles Vale at Circleville, Ohio. To them were born Bertha and Lloyd. Lloyd Vale served in the A.E.F. and died in 1929. Lucy is buried in Circleville, Ohio.

This concludes the information gleaned from the "Vincent - Coley" book. Many questions remain to be answered about descendents of this family.

Lewis was born 21 October 1848, the second son of William and Dorcas Callahan Dolan. He was born in Waterford, Ohio. (Washington County) On 7 March 1865 he volunteered to serve in the Ohio Infantry during the Civil War. His enlistment papers describe him as "five feet and eleven and lne-half inches tall, fair complexion, boue eyes and dark hair." Although he was listed as being 18 years of age, it is well known and documented that he was only 16 years old at the time of his enlistment. He was promoted to corporal after three weeks of service and reduced to the ranks 10 weeks later as the war drew to a close. After serving six months in Co. F of the 196th Regiment of the Ohio Infantry, Lewis Dolan was discharged on 7 September 1865 in Baltimore, Maryland.

Lewis returned to Waterford, Ohio and on 27 August 1868 he married Flora Edna Hagerman, daughter of John B. and Flora (Bingham) Hagerman. Six of their seven children were born in Waterford, Ohio. In 1883, they moved to Viroqua, Wisconsin. Their seventh and last child Frank was born in 1884.

On 28 March 1892 Lewis bought the Maple Grove Farm in Clinton and Webster Townships for $1000. This land was to remain in the Dolan family until 1934. Lewis sold the land to his son Bennett on 27 August 1920 for $10,000. After Bennett's death, his widow Jane transferred the land back to Lewis.

I corresponded in 1990 with a grandson of John and Lizzie Coffman..,Clarence VanHorne of Portage, Indiana. He has been very helpful with old pictures and information on the descendents of John Coffman. In one letter he wrote "Aunt Mae and Mother (Elsie) both were married in Ohio. Aunt Mae to Elwood Thompson but I don't know where or when. My Dad (Frank VanHorne) was born somewhere in the Pittsburg, Pennsylvania area. His parents were killed in some kind of accident when he was still an infant and he was raised by a family named Hood, I think. I know nothing of his childhood. He met and married mother in the Tiltonsville, Ohio area in 1906. After my older brother Alva was born July 1907, the mines weren't paying enough to live on and the new steel mills in Gary, Indiana started to build, he decided to come to Gary for a better job. After Dad got settled he sent for my mother and my brother Alva to come to Gary. Mother, Alva and Aunt Mae all rode to Gary on the B & O Railroad, and we have been in this area ever since. It was in Gary that Mae and Robert Wilson met and married."

9. Clarence Leland Coffman born 19 November 1920.
   Married 26 September 1942 to Frances Wickens.

This family moved from the Coal Run area to Hackney, Morgan County, Ohio in 1936. At the time of celebrating their 50th wedding anniversary, they had returned to the Coal Run area of Washington County. Mr. Coffman was considered one of the Muskingum Valley's finest farmers. His brother Mart, who was a bachelor, made his home with them and the two men worked as one. When corn cutting time came in the fall, the number of shocks cut by each that day was the topic of discussion at the Coal Run Post Office each evening. It was more important than the major league baseball scores! Often they cut 116 shocks of 96 hills!

The write up in the newspaper reporting their 50th wedding anniversary celebration included the following..."High atop the hill, where two roads meet in the little village of Coal Run, live two grand people, in the twilight of their lives in the same little clapboard cottage where they started housekeeping 50 years ago. Friends were impressed by the shining windows, freshly laundered curtains, and the queit dignity of the home in which this happy couple stood before the open fireplace to greet their neighbors and visitors. There were flowers everywhere and a three-tiered wedding cake. These two good people were a little amazed by all of the excitement and the ceremony of the occasion. They didn't really care for all the fuss. They were so glad that their nine children were home with them once more, if only for a little while. Mr. Coffman is a spry and wiry little man of almost 81 years. He was a dirt farmer by trade and he still makes a nice garden. He enjoys talking about his children when they were small, and he is delighted with his grandchildren. They are kindly folks, Godly folks, who seldom miss a Sunday at Church. Mrs. Coffman has a nice voice and still sings in the choir. The Coffmans received many gifts and cards and their children, 23 grandchildren, 7 great grandchildren along with all their other visitors made this a memorable occasion."

Clarence died 8 July 1955 and Della died 12 September 1971 and both are buried in the Beverly Washington County, Ohio cemetery.

Now for some Della Cowell family history...The Bethuel Cowell family moved from Clarksburg, West Virginia area to Beverly, Ohio area in 1862 when feeling began to grow tense at the time of the start of the Civil War. Children of this family included sons Mansfield, John, Eliza, Isaac and Levi. Daughters were Nancy, Louise. Order of birth not known and maiden name of their Mother Lucinda unknown.

The order of birth of these children not known. The George Cowell family of Washington County, Ohio are descendents of Levi Cowell, a brother of Mansfield Cowell.

Chapter V B a - MARY ETTA COFFMAN

Mary Etta Coffman was born 21 December 1856 in Warren Township near Tunnel, Washington County, Ohio, the first child of George Washington and Sarah Patten Coffman. She married 7 March 1880 to Lafayette (Lafe) Marquis Smith. He was born 9 March 1858 at Livingston County, Illinois. He died 8 September and she died 21 October both in 1942 and they are buried in the Gravel Bank (Riverview) Cemetery near the area in Warren Township where they spent most of their married life together. Children born to this couple include the following:

1. Nellie Etta Smith born 4 June 1882 at Wheeling Island, West Virginia.
   Married 4 November 1904 to Henry Porter.

2. Clifford Lyman Smith born 22 July 1891 in Washington County.
   Married Francis Schneider.
   Died 21 December 1955 at Charleston, West Virginia.

The picture of Lafe and Mary Smith standing in front of their log house with a chimney on the end is in Warren Township on Road No. 281. This is where grandson Paul Porter was born 20 December 1908. They later moved from the log house to a frame house which they built up on the hill nearby. In later years they lived in the former Oak Dale school building nearby on Warren Twp Road No. 281. I can remember as a boy visiting them with my parents at this location. Then they moved to live with Henry and Nellie Porter at Gravel Bank until their deaths in the fall of 1942.

Chapter V B b - SARAH ETTA COFFMAN

Sarah Etta Coffman was born 31 December 1859 in Warren Township near Tunnel in Washington County, Ohio, the second child of George Washington and Sarah Patten Coffman. She never married. She died 17 September 1956 on the homestead where she was born with burial in the Tunnel Cemetery nearby.

S. Etta Coffman was apparently named for her mother Sarah E. Patten Coffman. She was the second child born to George Washington Coffman. Because it seemed of little importance for a child to question a great aunt about the exact house her parents occupied at the time of her birth, its location can only be conjectured by her great-niece Ruth Coffman Garrett. The farm currently know as Coffman Farms at Tunnel, Warren Township, Washington County, Ohio originated as land purchased by George W. Coffman in 1855. Three occupied structures (homes) existed between the date of purchase and the time of Aunt Etta's death in 1956 (age 96).

The first she was heard to refer to as the 'old log house'. Gilbert Coffman believed this to be located on the ridge just east of the barn in use today. It could be conjectured that it was located on the original acerage when purchased by her father. It had steps leading to a 'loft'. It would have been a challenge to house a family of seven in this cabin.

The living quarters used next were in a frame house built of poplar siding and referred to as the 'salt box' design. There were two rooms down and two rooms up with a lean to combined kitchen - dining room one story high at the rear. The cistern and a well were just out the back door for a supply of water. A large stone covered the mouth of each. The old smoke-house occupied the north corner of the backyard as the building faced the east.

As the family became more affluent, a Victorian house with Queen Anne style was completed in 1884. The elaborate gingerbread trim and wooden shutters made a beautiful sight. Supervising construction of this home were master craftsmen carpenters Leonard and Leander Cornes, twin brothers of Watertown.

It would take a special section to do justice to this dear saint of an Aunt. She gladly slept on the floor, even when in her seventies, so that our cousins, the Weed girls and I could occupy her "three quarter sized bed 'positioned' two at the head and two at the foot". Such statements as these were included in her recollections: Her parents were called 'pap and mother'. She rode in the old 'bobsled', studied from Ray's 'higher arithmetic', went to school over on Turkey Hen, never married in deference to her mother's wishes, washed clothes on the wash board in a tub on the back porch while the regular washing was being done in the gasoline powered Maytag in the kitchen, refilled the straw tick used on her bed when necessary, and let nieces dress up in her period clothing whenever the notions struck them. She was known to be able to travel with a small 'carryall' anywhere at a moments' notice having been west four times, much to the chagrin of her brother Fremont. She knew exactly how to comfort small aching hearts, warm little cold feet and spend as much time as necessary to care for a family of children bereft of a mother when their mother Nellie Coffman suffered an untimely death.

Perhaps one of the finest memories about Aunt Ettie as we all called her was her great interest in church and the things of the Lord. She recounted how in her younger days she walked the hills and hollows of the community collecting money to be sent to the mission field. No one ever visited in our home that she did not witness for her Lord.

Had she earned a dime for every apple, potatoe, or green bean she prepared, she could have been a millionnaire. It was her fervent conviction that someday they would 'come up' with a pill that you could take so we wouldn't have to eat meals at all.

She had never heard of social security and would have refused a government pension had it been offered her. After all 'money is a universal passport to everywhere except heaven and a universal provider of everything except happiness.

Chapter V B c - GEORGE FRANK COFFMAN

George Frank Coffman was born 19 November 1862 the oldest son and third child of George Washington and Sarah Patten Coffman on the Coffman homestead near Tunnel in Washington County, Ohio. He married 25 November 1887 at Delmonica House, Mexico, Missouri to Hattie B. Lambert. She was born 6 September 1871 in Illinois the daughter of John Deloss and Catherine Hughes Lambert. John was born in New York and Catherine was born in Pennsylvania and they were married 27 November 1853 at Earlville, LaSalle County, Illinois.

G. Frank Coffman had moved to Mexico, Missouri when he was age 19 (1882) with a neighbor Finley Johnson from Washington County, Ohio. He became owner of a threshing machine business and married there in 1887 at age 25 as mentioned above. The four oldest children...Della, George, Beecher and Ray were all born in Missouri.

About 1895 this family moved back to the family farm in Warren Township, Washington County, Ohio and operated it for two or three years and lived in the older house on the farm. Auvergne (Kit) was born at this time. The family then moved to a house at Tunnel where the twins Delbert and Gilbert were born. The youngest child Finley was born while the family lived on the Charlie Perdew place out the road from Tunnel towards Barlow. About 1904 the Haddox farm(now the Mason farm) was purchased and moved there from the next door Hart farm. The 1910 Warren Township census lists Catherine Lambert age 75, widow living with her daughter and family.

Hattie Lambert Coffman died suddenly at Marietta 11 April 1926 at age 54. Her mother had just died in February in Pratt, Kansas. G. Frank Coffman died 1958 at Marietta with both being buried at Valley Cemetery, Marietta, Ohio.

It is of interest to note that on a warranty deed dated 7 November 1925, 60 acres of real estate in Warren Township was transferred from G. Frank and Hattie B. Coffman to Clarence Mercer of said Warren Township (now the Mason farm). The signatures of the children of G. Frank Coffman and their spouses (grantors) appeared on the deed as follows:

AUNT ETTA'S SONG

Little old woman sips her tea as people often tell
She loved her old man dearly, but another one twice as well.
CHORUS
Am sing titherie am de ah de
Am sing titherie am de ah de a.

She went down to the butcher shop to see if she could find,
By dome good means or other, to put her old man blind.
CHORUS

She bought some marrow bone and she made him take it all,
Said he, "My dear, my loving wife, I can't see you at all."
CHORUS

They went down to the riverand they walked along the shore,
Said he, "My dear, my loving wife, you'll have to push me o'er."
CHORUS

So she stepped back a step or two to run and shove him in,
The old man nimbly stepped aside and she went foremost in.
CHORUS

"My dear! My dear! My darling. Dear! You know that I can't swim!"
He took a great long ten foot pole and pushed her farther in.
CHORUS

And now my story's ended, I can't sing anymore.
But wasn't she a silly olg goose she didn't swim to shore?
CHORUS

Following on the next page is a copy of a letter sent by Captain Richard Plunkett to Rev Rascelus Gates 29 September 1862 from Camp Louden Heights, Maryland.

Camp Louden Heights, Md.,
September 29, 1862

Dear Friends:

It has been some time since I have written to you, so I thought as there was a good opportunity offering itself, I would take advantage at that time and write you a few lines to let you know that I am still among the dying and living. I am as well as can be expected for the fare we have. I hope these lines will find you all well and well to do. I got a letter from Van the other day. He is paroled and is in camp in Maryland. He says that he did not like the southern society very well. He told me to write to John will, which I did. I suppose you are aware that I have been in two battles since I have written to you, and by that we are 150 men short. The last fight we were in, at Antietam, was the 17th of September. It was a hard fight from daylight till dark. There was a continual roar of artillery and musketry. Our loss was estimated at ten thousand killed and wounded, and the rebels', I think, was as heavy as ours. Our regiment went into the fight with 120 men and had only two men killed and eighteen wounded, I was on the battlefield two days after the fight. The ground was covered with the dead rebels. They were all turning black. On one of six acres of ground, I saw 700 dead rebels, and once in a while I could distinguish life in some of the poor fellows who had been lying senseless ever since the fight. There were dead rebels and Union soldiers lying on the field for a week after the fight. The worst of the battle for me is to go over the battlefield after the fight. We all expected the battle would be renewed the 18th, but the Rebs sent a flag of truce to bury their dead. While they were doing that the main army skedaddled across the Potomac, into Virginia.

September 31st -- I must still finish my letter to day. Yesterday I had to stop and go over to Harper's Ferry to make out the monthly report, and you can bet I had a time of it, for I never did the like before, and as there is no sergeants or officers in our company, it falls on me to make out the morning and monthly reports. We only have seven privates for duty now and two of them are away from the regiment on daily duty, so that leaves five privates and one corporal to fill Company E. It is the smallest company in the regiment. Lieutenant Powell has been in the hospital over four weeks. Our last Sergeant left us over three weeks ago.

We have about twenty-five of our company in the hospital. When they get back we will be a pretty good sized company, but if this war lasts two years longer, I don't think there will be one of Company E left to tell the fate of the others, without it is the paroled ones that will tell it, and I am sure they don't know. We are camped on Louden Heights, close to Harper's Ferry. We are on top of it and have to carry water from the foot of the mountain, which is about one mile. It is very healthy here, and carrying water gives us a good appetite for hard crackers. I expect we will have pretty hard times this winter. I don't know as I have room for any more this time, and don't know whether you can read this or not. Give my best respects and well wishes to all your family and to George Ed. Tell him to write me and then I will write him.

Obituary of Elizabeth Susan Linbaugh Calahan

Mrs Elizabeth Susan Linbaugh Calahan was born in Turbiesville, PA , 8 Feb 1849, and died at the home of the oldest son, Milton Calahan, at his home in La Grange, Indiana, August 22, 1915, and was buried the Tuesday following in Riverside Cemetery at Howe. When she was an infant, her parents moved from Pennsylvania to New York state and from there while she was but a child to White Pigeon Michigan, where she grew up to womanhood and was married to Alfred Calahan. Directly after their marriage the young folks moved to the new and pretty home in the Old Forge neighborhood where their family of children were born and where she spent the greater part of her life. For a couple of years past she has been making her home in the main with her children, Mrs Ada Green of near Union City, Michigan, Mrs Dora Keck of Wolcottville, and Milton Callahan of LaGrange. She was the mother of eight children, five of whom are living--David M. of LaGrange, Myron l., Dora M. Keck, Willard Frank of Lima Twp and Ada L. Green. George W., Clara and Terry, twins, are deceased. Mrs Calahan was baptised in infancy, but after coming to her home, after her marriage, she did not unite with any church. As the mother of many children her life was not altogether at all times an easy one and her best days were spent caring for her family. She had a good warm heart and all through her life lived up to her best advantages. She loved her children and they were always good and kind to her. It may be truly said of her that she did the best that she could and God required no more. May the new life into which she has entered be a happy and peaceful one. Her husband survives her.

Hannah died 31 March 1893 age 34 and the daughter Myrtle took over the housekeeping. The family moved to Goodell, Iowa in 1898. The son Edwin Callahan had rented a farm there and the rest of the family moved to Iowa to help him operate the farm. See Chapter VI H e 4 of this book. Additional information has recently been uncovered concerning the Nebraska homesteading adventure referred to above as follows:

> A lawsuit occured styled George W. Beebe vs Enoch Callahan dealing with a Homestead Settlement Pre-emption claim. Both homesteaders were claiming possession of a tract of land in Niobrara land district, Nebraska. A transcript of the lawsuit includes the following facts: On 30 May 1884, Callahan made a homestead entry for said tract and on 23 March 1885 he offered final commutation proof for said land before the Clerk of the District Court at O'Neill, Nebraska and on the same day Beebe filed a protest against the acceptance of Callahan's commutation proof alleging that he, Beebe, made settlement on said tract 9 May 1884 and established actual residence thereon 4 June 1884, which was continuous, and filed the pre-emption declaratory statement for the same on 12 June 1884, that he could prove that Callahan did not settle upon nor make improvement on the land until one or two weeks after 9 May 1884.

Rulings by the judge occured 7 February 1889 and 13 August 1890. Perhaps the results of this lawsuit caused hard feelings that affected both families involved in this lawsuit.

Children born to this couple include the following: Edgar John, Harold, Horace Norma Mildred, Erma May, Dorothy Ellen and Glenna Lucille Rech. Following is a family history titled "Descendents of Ludwig Rech" which has been prepared by Catherine Sams, a descendent of Anna May Callahan.

DESCENDANTS OF LUDWIG RECH

According to Charles Rechs' paper written in Chicago in 1931, Nicholas Rech and his wife whose maiden name was Wirth came to the United States in May 1859. They had 7 children, all born in Bavaria, Germany:

(1) Nicholas
(2) Daniel
(3) Jacob
(4) Phoebia
(5) Julia
(6) Caroline
(7) Ludwig born 30 June 1835 Goelle Houser, Bavaria, Germany

In 1931 Charles listed his aunts, uncles, and fathers residences as follows (even though some of them were deceased) : Nicholas, Kosciusko, Indiana; Daniel near Marietta, Ohio; Jacob, New York state; Phoebia, Marietta, Oho; Julia, Marietta, Ohio; Caroline, New York state; and Ludwig, Marietta, Ohio.

In the Highland Ridge Church records there is a death record for a Nicholas Rech. Date of birth is given as March 1793 and death is listed as 28 August 1859. (IS#21)

Ludwig Rech was born 30 June 1835 in Goelle Hauser, Bavaria, Germany (IS#1) to Nicholas & ? Wirth Rech. (IS#1&2) He was married to Elizabetha Braach/Brack on 4 March 1856 in the village of Godelhausun, Bavaria, Germany by Karl Scheuenuan, Justice of the Peace. (IS#3) Elizabetha was born 16 March 1834 Eisenbach, Bavaria, Germany. (IS#1)

Ludwig came to the United States in 1859 with his wife, son, father, mother, and two sisters: Julia & Phoebia. (IS#1)

Family tradition says that Ludwig's second child, Wilhelmina was born on the boat on the way to America and was named for the ship. The "Wilhelmina Woodbury" arrived in this country sometime in May 1859. (IS#1) (Her exact port of arrival is unknown at this time.) Ludwig and his family settled in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania where Ludwig went to work in a Steel Mill. (IS#4)

In 1863 Ludwig joined the Army receiving $500 for his enlistment. With the $500 Elizabetha came to Washington Co. and purchased a farm on Highland Ridge. Today this farm is known as the "Berg Farm". They lived there until 1870 at which time they bought the present day Rech farm on Route 21. Ludwig purchased the farm from Johan Ulrich Ulmer Sr. and the 4th generation--John Lewis Rech now owns the farm. (Johan Ulmer moved to the adjoining farm.) (IS#4)

Ludwig enlisted to serve in the Civil War on 1 September 1864 for a period of 1 year. He was mustered in at Pittsburgh, PA in Co. G of the PA 5th Regiment Heavy Artillery under the command of Captain Christian Ross. Ludwig remained with his company in Pittsburgh until September 13. He was mustered out on 30 June 1865 at Washington, D.C. (The Company Muster Roll says Washington, D.C. but on his pension application dated 22 December 1888, it says Fairfax, VA) (IS#3) It is interesting to note that Ludwig was on guard duty at the White House when President Abraham Lincoln was shot. (IS#4)

Ludwig applied for a pension (#722,053) on the basis that he had "fever sores on left leg affecting the bone". He received a pension of $22.50 per month commencing on 28 January 1913. After his death, Elizabetha received a Widow's pension of $36.00 per month until her death. (IS#3)

Ludwig died on the Rech Farm on 24 February 1915. Elizabetha died on 1 August 1916. They are both buried in Highland Ridge Cemetery. Ludwig and Elizabetha had

6 children:

(1) Lewis Nicholis born 3 November 1856 in Kussel, Germany (IS#4)
(2) Wilhelmina born 20 April 1859 on the ship "Wilhelmina Woodbury" on the Alantic Ocean.
(3) William Edward born 12 March 1864 Pittsburgh, PA
(4) Charles born circa 1865
(5) Carolina born 9 May 1866 Muskingum Twp. Wash. Co. OH
(6) Jacob John born 29 May 1868 Muskingum Twp. Wash. Co. OH

Jacob John Rech [3] (Ludwig [2], Nicholas [1]) married Anna May Callihan (daughter of John Callihan & Rozilla Atkinson) on 7 October 1896 Marietta, Ohio by R.F. Crooks. (IS#9) Anna was born 11 March 1874 Marietta and died 17 February 1964.

J.J. was gored to death by a bull on 1 October 1922 on his farm. (IS#10) Everyone told J.J. to be careful around the bull as it was mean and he shrugged it off saying "that bull won't hurt me". The bull had to be shot before they could recover his body.

Anna married Charles Henry McKenna (son of Zachariah McKenna & Elizabeth Sudder) on 16 August 1927. (Charles was a widower.) Charles was struck by lightening and died on 27 September 1944. He is buried in Williamstown, West Virginia.

Anna and J.J. are buried in the Lutheran Cemetery located 3 miles outside of Waterford on 676. They had 7 children: (IS#10)

They lived on the Rech farm at Waterford until 1947 when they moved to a house on Jenison Street in Beverly, Ohio. (This house was built during the Civil War.)

Horace died on 23 September 1980 at Marietta Memorial Hospital, Marietta, Ohio and was buried on 26 September in the Beverly (Ohio) Cemetery.

Sometime in July 1980, Horace told his grand-daughter Catherine Sams that this year was the last year he was going to farm. He was right as he died in September.

Horace & Freda had 2 children:

(1) Anna Marie born 29 August 1940 Waterford, Ohio
(2) Jennifer Claire born 18 February 1954 Marietta, Ohio

[NOTE] Freda had a daughter, Donelle born on 3 September 1937 at the Florence Crittenton Home at Columbus, Ohio. Donelle's father was Earl L. Barth but she went by Donelle Rech until she married.

Donelle [5] (Freda [4], Hiram [3], Albert [2], William [1]) got her name under somewhat unusual circumstances. Horace was an avid hunter and always had a male hunting dog named "Don" and a female hunting dog named "Nell". He combined the two names and came up with Donelle. When Donelle was 12 years old she added the name "Jane" as her middle name since all her friends had middle names and she did not.

In high school, Donelle was a member of the school band where she played drum. She would have been valedictorian when her class graduated in June 1955 at Beverly High School except for the fact she had an unexcused absence. She had the unexcused absence as she eloped with Joe Roger Lewis (son of John D. Lewis & Ruth M. Andrews). They were married at Greenup, Kentucky on 20 April 1955. (They had just met 2 weeks before! Donelle was working part-time at Interlake and Joe was working there full time. A mutual friend introduced them.) Joe was born in Ellenboro, Ritchie County, West Virginia on 18 August 1934. Joe & Donelle had 3 daughters:

(1) Catherine Jean born 25 January 1956 Marietta, Ohio
(2) Deborah Kay born 11 November 1957 Marietta, Ohio
(3) Beth Ann born 5 October 1959 Parkersburg, Wood Co. West Virginia

Joe and Donelle lived in a trailer beside Donelle's parents' house in Beverly, Ohio until June 1957. At that time, they moved their trailer to Wood's trailer court in Belpre, Ohio. In 1958 they moved their trailer to 2720 Beach Drive in Belpre, Ohio. Joe built a garage and later added a house to it. (before October 1959) Between 1960 and 1962 they built a new house at the same location.

In May 1967 Joe sold this property to Ted Kalb and moved the family to a house at 1812 Washington Blvd. Belpre Ohio which they rented. In October 1967, they purchased a new home in the Woodlawn Acres Sub-division located on St. Rt. 339 approximately 6 miles from Belpre. There they lived until 1975 when Joe and Donelle divorced.

Donelle & Joe separated in November 1975 and were divorced on 1 March 1976. After the divorce, Donelle went to work for Paperback Book Mart at Vienna, West Virginia. She was laid off from that job and enrolled at Mountain State College. She graduated in March 1984. She now works for the Parkersburg News & Sentinel in the advertising department.

She lives at 407 1/2 Washington Boulvard in Belpre with her cat, Bandit.

Catherine J. Lewis [6] (Donelle Rech [5], Freda [4], Hiram [3], Albert [2], William [1]) graduated from Belpre High School (Belpre, Ohio) on 7 June 1974. She married Joseph Lee Sams (son of Joseph R. Sams & Bettie Ann Albright) on 14 June 1974 at the Veto Presbyterian Church, Dunham Township, Washington Co. Ohio.

Now is a good time to relate a story about Catherine that happened before she was born. When Joe and Donelle were expecting their first child, Dave, (Joe's brother) kept saying the baby would be a boy and was calling him "Sam." When Joe called to give his mother the happy news, Dave asked "Is Sam here?" Ruth replied

"Yes, she is." This story was remarked upon several times when Catherine grew up and married a Sams.

Joe was born 13 August 1953 at Washington D.C. Catherine met Joe in June 1970 when his family moved into the Woodlawn Acres sub-division 3 houses down from the Lewis home. They became friends and dated for 3 years before becoming engaged. They were engaged 9 months before marrying one week after Catherine graduated from Belpre High School. Joe graduated from Belpre High School in June 1971. They have 2 children:

(1) Jamie Joe born 2 September 1975 Parkersburg, West Virginia
(2) Robin Angela born 19 March 1979 Parkersburg, West Virginia

Catherine graduated from Belpre High School after attending High School only 3 years instead of the usual 4. During her senior year, Catherine was the Journalism teachers' student assistant and was co-editor of the school newspaper "The Golden Eagle." She was also inducted into National Honor Society , won the Quill & Schroll Award for Journalism and was included in the publication "Who's Who among American High School Students".

A mild interest in genealogy began when she was 15 years old but did not really blossom until she was pregnant with her first child. Also while she was in high school she began writing poerty and short stories. Writing poetry is a family trait that Catherine shares with her mother; grandmother, Freda Rech; both sisters; and cousin, Chelsea Malinas.

In May 1983 Catherine was the founder of the Washington Co. Chapter of the Ohio Genealogical Society and served as its President until January 1987. She also was editor of the Chapters' newsletter, the WASHINGTON; and has published 6 books (4 cemetery books, 1 census, and 1 family history.)

In addition to genealogy, her hobbies include quilting, swimming, and listening to classical music.

After working at Little Hocking Water for over 8 years, Catherine quit her job in February 1987 and began attending Washington Technical College. She is currently working towards her Associate Accounting Degree and will graduate in the spring of 1990.

Catherine lives with her family which includes 3 dogs: Teddy, Jussy, & Krissy; and 1 cat: Licorice at Route 1 Box 474, Vincent, Ohio.

Debbie Lewis [6] (Donelle Rech [5], Freda [4], Hiram [3], Albert [2], William [1]) graduated 5th in her class from Belpre High School in 1976. She played the flute and piccalo in the High School band and participated in several solo and ensemble contests. In her Junior year of high school she was inducted into the National Honor Society. In her senior year she received the "All Star Cast" Award in a one act play competition at Marietta, Ohio. She portrayed Eve in "The Diary of Adam & Eve." by Mark Twain. She also portrayed the Charwoman in the senior class play "Anastasia." Debbie started writing poetry about the age of 11 years. She had 2 poems published in "A College Poetry Anthology" by Laurel Press in 1983.

When Debbie was 2 years old, she accidently discovered a hornet's nest that was near the hitch of the family's trailer. This was the only time Donelle ever outran Joe as she ran and grabbed Debbie to get her away from the hornets! Debbie received over 50 stings and to this day, she is allergic to bee stings. Three days after getting into the hornets nest, Debbie sneezed and out came a hornet!

On January 24, 1968 while popping popcorn, Debbie received 2nd and 3rd degree burns on her left hand, right arm, and stomach. The pan slipped off the stove and while trying to catch it, the pan overturned pouring grease and popcorn on her. The scars on her stomach and hand have faded but the one on her arm remains.

Debbie married James Russell VanFosson Jr. (son of James R. VanFosson Sr. & Mary Frances Hyland) on 17 July 1976 at Leesburg, Virginia.

Debbie had dated Bob Van Fosson (Jim's cousin) for some time when she met Jim who was home on leave from the Marines. When Jim returned to Washington D.C. Debbie went with him and they were married a short time later. They lived in the D. C. area until Jim was discharged from the Marines in the Spring of 1979. They moved to Springfield, Ohio (where Jim's parents live) which is just outside of Youngstown. Debbie and Jim separated on 1 August 1980 and Debbie moved in with her mother. Shortly after the separation, Jim came to visit (on a Sunday) and took Joey out for ice cream. (All the way back to Springfield.) Debbie, her mother, and a cousin of Jim's, Teresa Van Fosson, rented a car that evening and drove to Springfield. (about a 4 hour drive from Belpre.) So, at 2:00 am Debbie crawled in the bedroom window of their trailer, tiptoed past a sleeping Jim into Joey's room. She picked Joey up and very quietly walked out the front door and drove back to Belpre. Jim did not realize Joey was missing until 7:00 am. Later that day, Debbie kept her appointment with her attorney and was granted custody of the boys.

Debbie & Jim had 2 sons:

(1) James Joseph "Joey" born 16 November 1977 Andrews Air Force Base, Maryland
(2) Michael Patrick born 11 March 1980 Youngstown, Ohio

Debbie and Jim's divorce was final on 29 December 1980. After the divorce Debbie enrolled at Washington Technical College taking Secretarial Science courses and graduated "Cum Laude" in June 1983. After graduation, she went to work in the Athletic Department at Marietta College. She worked for Burgess & Niple LTD, an engineering and architectual firm located in Parkersburg, West Virginia from Septemter 1984 to July 22, 1987. On July 27, 1987, she went to work for Shell Chemical Co. at their Belpre, Ohio plant.

Debbie lives at 811 Belrock Avenue, Apt. 6, Belpre, Ohio with her two boys and their cat, Banjo.

Bethe Anne Lewis [6] (Donelle Rech [5], Freda [4], Hiram [3], Albert [2], William [1]) graduated from Belpre High School in June 1978. She too, was a member of the National Honor Society. She played a Saxaphone in the band and was also a member of the Flag Corp.

In the summer of 1977, Bethe changed the spelling of her name. Also, in 1977 she and her father had a falling out over Bethe's dating and subsequent engagement to a black man, Daniel Logan. They did not see or speak to each other until she came home from Wisconsin in December 1983.

She graduated from Ohio State in June 1982 where she was named one of ten outstanding seniors in a class of 5,000 students. She went on to graduate school at the University of Wisconsin. Because of financial problems she dropped out of school in 1983 and took a job at the AAA as a secretary. After quitting this job she signed up for the Peace Corps. In February 1984 Bethe went to Thailand where she taught 11-19 year old students and did teacher training. Bethe came back home to the United States in June 1987 and in September 1987 went to work as a Peace Corps recruiter at Minneapolis, Minnesota. Bethe applied for and was accepted for a teaching position sponsered by a United Nations Program. On 5 September 1988, Bethe left for China to teach at Beijing University. Bethe was in Beijing during the Student Uprisings which occurred in May and June 1989. Because of the uncertainity and unpredictability of events in China, Bethe, along with several other Americans from the Beijing American Embassy flew to Hong Kong. She returned to Beijing on 22 June 1989.

The headline reads "MADDENED BULL GORES J.J. RECH TO DEATH"
Prominent Man Found Dead And Beast On Guard
Rescue Party Discovers Body and Has Narrow Escape
From Like Fate When Animal Charges Them
And They Have Close Race To The Fence Of Pasture

Attacked by a maddened bull, while alone with the animal in a field a half-mile from his home, Jacob J. Rech, well known farmer of Watertown township, was gored and trampled to death Sunday forenoon. His lifeless body was found several hours later, and the frenzied animal stood guard over it, attempting to drive off the members of a rescue party. It was necessary to kill the bull before the victim's body could be carried from the field.

Edward Rech, of the Pioneer Auto Company, of this city, a son of the dead man; Fred Seely, telegraph operator for Plumer & Crawford, brokers, and Amons De Moll, of this city found the body of Mr. Rech, and almost before they knew what was wrong, the bull charged them. They managed to get to safety behind a heavy fence, but Seely had a close call, as the bull was right on his heels when he went over the fence and into the creek. Forunately for him, the fence stopped the charging animal. Edward hastened back to his home, procured a 25 rifle and killed the bull--a Holstein of large size.

Motor Party Finds Body

Edward Rech, Amons De Moll, and the Misses Virginia Clark, Norma Rech, and Alice Mulvill, of Marietta, motored home Sunday afternoon, arriving there about 2 o'clock. Mrs. Rech met the party outside her home and told them that Mr. Rech had taken the bull to a pasture on another farm a half a mile away. She said that he had left home just after 10 o'clock in the morning, and his failure to return was causing her much worry. The young people immediately started out to investigate and Edward Rech armed himself with a heavy pitchfork. They walked through the fields to the other farm, and had searched for nearly an hour, when Seely came suddenly came upon the mangled remains of Mr. Rech. The body was lying in the tall grass near a clump of trees on the creek bank. Almost at the instant that he saw the body, the bull charged toward him.

Calling to the girls in the party to run for their lives Seely headed of the bull until they got away, attracting the attention of the animal to himself, then he made for the fence. Young Rech tried to drive the animal away with the pitchfork, and did succeed in forcing him back along the fence, but any attempt to approach the body of Mr. Rech brought a renewed charge, then it was decided to get a rifle and kill the animal.

News of the horrible fate that had befallen Mr. Rech quickly spread through the countryside and great crowds of people flocked to the Rech farm. Dr. Hayward, of Waterford, was summoned but his services were of no avail, as the victim had been dead for several hours, and the mangled body was cold when found.

Body Horribly Mangled

As nearly as can be figured, Mr. Rech had led the bull into the field where he expected to pasture the animal, had spread some salt on the grass, then had turned to go home. Apparently the animal charged him the minute his back was turned. Knocking him to the ground, it evidently continued the attack, goring and trampling him to death. The victim's chest was completely caved in, and his face and head had been horribly mangled.

When her children informed Mrs. Rech of the fate of her husband, she all but collasped and for a time there was much concern regarding her condition. She rallied, however, in the late afternoon.

Mr. Rech was 52 years of age and was one of the progressive farmers of western Washington County. He was a candidate for the Democratic nominatiion for county commissioner in the August primaries. He is survived by his widow and by seven children, four sons and three daughters.

She married 18 February 1901 in Washington County, Ohio to Edwin James Callahan. He the oldest son of John Enoch and Hannah Jane Colvin Callahan born 21 January 1877 at Waterford, Washington County, Ohio. See Chapter VI E a 2 of this book for information on this family.

At the age of 19 years, Edwin started working for a logging outfit in North Dakota and later worked as a farm hand for a hard working German family. Around 1898, his uncle found a farm for him to rent at Goodell, Iowa. Edwin rented it and sent for his father, brother and sister. His father sold his farm in Washington County, Ohio and shipped his farming equipment, household goods and livestock to Iowa. In February, 1901, Edwin returned to Ohio to marry his childhood sweetheart, Carrie Dorcas Linscott. Her father didn't think young Edwin was good enough for her and refused to give his consent. Carrie's brother Harry helped Edwin carry a ladder to Carrie's window one night and the couple eloped to Marietta and were married.

They lived with Edwin's father, brother and sister in Iowa until August of 1901 when Edwin left for the Great Land Lottery in Oklahoma. He rode the excursion train to El Reno to register for a claim. Seeing a field of cotton for the first time on the trip, he wondered why anyone would plant so many Maple trees! Edwin drew a lucky number at El Reno and bought a ticket to the end of the railroad line, Lone Wolf, Oklahoma. He staked a claim three miles north of the town, N/W 1/4 - 31 - 7 - 19. The family came down from Iowa in the spring of 1902 with their farming equipment, household goods and livestock.

Edwin realized everybody would need feed, so he and his father pooled their cash and opened Callahan and Son feed store in a tent on Main Street, with a false front to lend importance. The tent also served as living quarters. The business prospered and they built a two story building behind the front, with the store on the first floor and living quarters above. They lived in a one room shack on their claim on weekends to prove up the claim.

In July 1902, Christopher S. Skow of Goodell, Iowa visited the Callahan family and on 23 July 1902 he and Myrtle Callahan were married. They returned to Iowa to live. On 9 December 1903, Chester A. Callahan, first child of Edwin and Carrie Linscott Callahan was born.

A bumper corn crop was harvested in 1904. Ed Callahan started buying corn to ship out, but a shortage of boxcars developed. He bought hogs and fed them the corn and later shipped the fat hogs to market. This was Ed Callahan's start in the livestock business.

On 9 July 1905, little Chester who had been sick for some time, died. A long procession followed the pallbearers as they walked to the grave according to the custom of the time. Before leaving to buy hogs on 2 June 1906, Ed asked a neighbor Mrs. William Sauerberg to stay with Carrie. When he returned that night he found that he was the proud father of a son whom he named Clyde Carroll Callahan.

In 1908, Ed sold the homestead and the entire family left in two covered wagons for New Mexico Territory. They opened a wagon yard and feed store and Ed ran 5,000 sheep on open range. In the fall of 1909, the feed store and wagon yard were sold and the family returned to Oklahoma. By this time there were two sons, Albert had been born during their stay in New Mexico.

In 1927, the family moved to a farm west of Hobart, Oklahoma. Carrie died 3 May 1961 after a long illness. Edwin died 10 February 1962 from injuries received in an automobile accident. They are buried beside each other in the Lone Wolf, Oklahoma Cemetery.

The following page is titled HISTORY OF GEORGE BIRD. This history is really of George Bird Sr. and was provided by his great-great-great-grandson Clarence Edwin Bird.

HISTORY OF GEORGE BIRD

WHO came to this country with the British Army in 1776, and after the War lived in Pennsylvania until 1820. At that time he came to Ohio and located in Muskingum County, where he lived and died about the year A. D. 1845.

ROCHELLE, ILL., Oct. 26, 1888.

WALTER BIRD, Zanesville, Ohio.

Dear Sir: In accordance with the request of yourself and daughter, and my promise when there, I will try and give you something of the history of our Grandfather, GEORGE BIRD, as he was somewhat reserved in saying much about his history concerning the Revolutionary War. Personally, I never heard him say but little in regard to it; I, however, learned from my father something of his history which I have no doubt was correct; it being very interesting I have never forgotten the general run of it; I am now among the oldest of his grandchildren or the third generation living. I will give you as near correct as possible from memory something of his history as I learned it:

During the early part of the Revolutionary War, he being a British subject, he and his brother John were conscripted by the British Government and placed in one of the Hessian Regiments that was sent to this country some time in July, 1776. The circumstances were these: They were conscripted by the proper officers without any notice of their coming, and at the time Grandfather was not of age; he was working at the tailor's trade and was on the bench when taken. His brother John was two years his senior; he was in the field at work when taken, and was taken the same day. Fortunately, they were consigned to the same Regiment and Company. It being very much against their will to be taken in this way. Very soon after they were landed in this country their sympathies were with the American people, and within a few months Grandfather proposed to his brother the idea of deserting from the British army; his brother did not think it best to undertake the experiment, as it meant death if detected. Grandfather, failing to prevail on his brother to desert, after a time concluded to make the attempt alone; so one very dark, rainy night, when the army was on Brandywine Creek, in Pennsylvania, he made the attempt, and succeeded in getting through the lines. It being dark and not being acquainted with the country, he was at a loss what to do. After wandering some time along the Brandywine Creek, he concluded to secrete himself under a cliff of rocks and await daylight. When daylight came, he saw he was not far enough away from the British lines to venture out, so remained secreted during the day, and during this day there were some trying moments for him, as from appearances the British had sent out detachments to look for him. They twice passed within a few feet of his concealment, but fortunately did not discover him. These twenty-four hours were probably the longest of any similar length of time during his life. When night came he decided which direction to start, and being without food for twenty-four hours, it became necessary to look out for something to eat. He fortunately struck a Quaker settlement where he succeeded in gaining their sympathy. They cared for him a short time, but it was his desire to get inside the lines of the American army, and with the assistance of some of the influential Quakers succeeded in getting there. He then stated his case and asked their protection and requested that he might be permitted to remain with them. They assigned him the position of teamster, which he accepted, and remained with them until the close of the war.

Now, in regard to his brother John, who remained in the British army and was in the battle of Brandywine, near Wilmington, Del., about July 11, 1777. Washington's army was defeated in this engagement, and in this battle his brother John was killed. Grandfather saw his dead body on the field when they were burying the dead.

I will give a little history of this BIRD family: It was always understood that Grandfather and his brother John were the only ones of the family ever in this country as far as known. If this was the case, it is not hard to trace our connections as far as this family goes, as John had no issue. Therefore, all sprang from our Grandfather.

Now, in regard to Grandfather: After the close of the war he settled first in Chester County, Penn., and there married Miss Deborah Thomas, a Quaker lady of the same county. They remained in that county until about 1817 or 1818. In the fall of 1817 my father and yours, Jonathan and George, started from Chester County, Penn., for Ohio on horse back to look up a location. Ohio was then the "Far West," and the travel then was principally on horse back. On their way after crossing the mountains they stopped at Cannonsburg, Washington County, Penn., to see a friend and rest their horses. From advice given by this friend they decided to rent a farm near Cannonsburg, which they did, and returned home without going to Ohio. In the following spring all the family moved from Chester County to this farm, where they remained about two years. In the fall of 1819 Jonathan and George again started for Ohio. They at first selected some land in Guernsey County, Ohio, near Cambridge; they did not settle on this land, but went to Blue Rock Township, Muskingum County, and took up some land. Part of the family, which consisted of your father and mine, went to this land in the spring of 1820, and a few years later those left behind moved into the same township, and the entire family remained in this township for many years.

But time has done its work, and this pioneer family have all passed away; a few more years at most, and those that are left must lie as low and silent as they.

I have been asked if it was not a fact that Grandfather's first appearance with the Quakers did not lead to his settling among them, and marrying a Quaker lady? I think, undoubtedly, this was the fact, as he went into the same neighborhood at the close of the war.

Respectfully Yours,

JOHN T. BIRD.

Chapter VII H d - RAY CALVIN COFFMAN

Ray Calvin Coffman was born 4 March 1894 at Mexico, Missouri to G. Frank and Hattie Lambert Coffman. Ray was raised in the Tunnel community of Washington County, Ohio. Ray was the only one of his family to graduate from High School as he went to Marietta and lived with a cousin while attending school. Ray went west to work in the oil fields in 1911 with his older brother Beecher. He married Aline and lived in Cowley County, Kansas in October, 1925. He married second to Myrtle Suever of Columbus, Ohio. She died and in later years he married a widow Pearl E. Whiteman. She died 8 September 1987 at age 97 in Columbus with burial in Forest Lawn Cemetery. Ray had died 1 January 1981 at age 86 and is buried with Myrtle in Sunset Cemetery, Columbus, Ohio. No children resulted from any of these unions.

He was the founder and President of Coffman Optical which at one time consisted of twelve offices in Ohio. He had been involved in the Optical business for a period of 35 years at the time of his death. Prior to this, Ray and his brother operated an appliance store in the Hilltop area of Columbus. See Chapter VII H e for more information on the Optical business. He had been involved in oil drilling in the Barlow area of Washington County, Ohio. He was a member of Glenwood UM Church at Columbus, a veteran of World War I. member of Westgate Lodge No. 623, F & AM, honorary member of Luther B. Turner Lodge, member of Mount Vernon Commandery and member of the Shrine. He had lived in the Hilltop area of Columbus, Ohio for many years.

Ray was a popular person at family reunions as he always had a tale to tell and would also enjoy demonstrating his feats of strength. Driving a nail in a piece of wood with his bare fist was one of the favorites of the Coffman children. He was typical of most Coffman family men, a big kid at heart. Yet very willing to take what opportunities come along and work hard to make a success of them.

Chapter VII H e - CATHERINE AUVERGNE COFFMAN

Catherine Auvergne (Kitty) Coffman was born 26 November 1898 at Tunnel, Warren Township, Washington County, Ohio, the daughter of G.Frank and Hattie Lambert Coffman. On 29 October 1925 she was single and living in Huron County, Ohio. She married to Pete Gordon. No children born to this couple. She died 1 May 1958 with burial in Sunset Cemetery, Columbus, Ohio.

I feel this would be an appropriate place to include a brief account of how New Deal Optical, May's Optical and Coffman Optical got started as related by various members of the Coffman family. Auvergne Coffman and Pete Gordon were business partners who started New Deal Optical in September, 1938 in Baltimore, Maryland. With seed money earned from a door to door photography business, they started the optical business in Baltimore from scratch. Vineta Robison, Raleigh Robison and Lillie Robison (one at a time and in this order) soon joined their Aunt Auvergne in operating three Baltimore offices. Following their 1939 marriage, Vineta and Eddie Dye opened May's Optical office in Hagerstown, Maryland. George and Edna Coffman became involved in New Deal Optical and then opened Coffman Optical office at Cumberland, Maryland.

During the war years, Auvergne established another company to manufacture optical lens for range finders for the U.S. Armed Forces. At one time, some of these items sere stored in Beecher Coffman's barn on his farm near Watertown, Washington County, Ohio for safekeeping. This company closed following the war and its 35 employees were merged into the New Deal Optical offices.

Influenced by the success of the optical offices in the east, Coffman Optical was started in Columbus, Ohio by Ray and Finley Coffman in the early 1940's. A second office was opened in Akron with Finley in charge until his death. Other stores were opened in Elyria, Mansfield, New Philadelphia and Youngstown. Floyd Coffman owned the New Philadelphia and Elyria stores at the time of his accidental death in 1970 in Pennsylvania. Al and Barbara Coffman Watts managed the store at Mansfield. George Henley managed the New Philadelphia store until his 1981 retirement. This store still operates under the Coffman Optical name but ownership has passed from the Coffman family. David Coffman operates a Coffman Fashion Eyewear office in Elyria, Ohio. A few years prior to Ray Coffman's 1981 death, he opened offices in Marietta and Athens, Ohio. At one time a total of twelve Coffman Optical offices were in operation.

Raleigh and Luella Robison and Art and Lillie Augenstein purchased New Deal Optical from Auvergne and Pete Gordon in 1949. A total of twelve office locations were in operation when the business was sold in 1986.

As you could probably guess from the above brief account, many of the Coffman family members were involved in this very successful Optical enterprise. The spouses of the above mentioned were also very instrumental in the successful operation of the offices. A special thank you to George and Virginia Henley and to Lillie Augenstein for sharing many of these highlights.

Lillie Augenstein served for one year starting June 1984 as President of the Opticians Association of America. She has conducted marketing and financial management seminars in almost every state and all over the world on behalf of the Opticians Association of America.

Chapter VII I b - CLEMENS DeWITT COFFMAN

Clemens DeWitt Coffman was born 1 January 1901 at Harmar Community, Marietta, Ohio the only son of Fremont Dixon and Hattie Marinda McCowan Coffman. He married 12 January 1921 at the Reid home at Constitution to Mary Lucinda Reid. She was born 26 September 1899 to Hugh and Anna Harrington Reid. Rev. Robert Weed officiated at this ceremony as he did in later years at the marriage of each of the four children of Clemens and Mary.

In conversation with Rev. Robert P. Miller Sr. (a nephew of Robert Weed)of Washington Court House, Ohio in May of 1986, he recalled the following: "In the fall of 1917 when Iwas three years of age, my parents moved into the old house on the Coffman farm at Tunnel and lived there one year and operated the farm. During this year, Fremont and Hattie Coffman and son Clemens moved to Upland, Indiana while Clemens attended Taylor University. While there they lived in a house owned by Robert Weed. (Robert and Clytice had married in May of 1917.) I remember Aunt Etta well and the fact that she had one Jersey cow and one horse and surrey. Once I was milking this cow and when finished I just turned around and started milking the cow behind me. Of course, this was the 'wrong side' so the cow promptly kicked me, knocking me off the stool, spilling the milk and I ended up in the manure ditch and my clothes were a mess. I remember being told of Clemens discovering that their Overland car ran much better on damp evenings along the Ohio River so he fixed up an engine attachment consisting of a fruit jar filled with water and made so that water dripped into the carbeurator and the car ran better away from the river also. During this year, I remember attending the Tunnel Church where Rev. Robert Weed was the minister and he also served the Constitution and Warren Chapel Churches. I also remember Ray and Gilbert Coffman and G. Frank Coffman family lived on the nearby farm. (Hart place) Once Gilbert was visiting the house where I had just woke up from a nap, I was crying and Mom asked me what was wrong? Gilbert was amused at my answer 'I didn't get my nap out!' I remember the cistern and dug well located in the back yar of the house and the well up at the end of the barn and the scale house where the Overland was garaged."

In May of 1984, I talked by phone with Herman Rumbold of Marietta (born 1912) and he related the following "I worked for Fremont and Clemens Coffman on the farm at Tunnel during 1932 and 1933. I remember when you were born (June 20, 1932) and Ralph was just a little feller. Ruth was ten years younger than me. I remember that Hattie Coffman was a tremendous cook and I remember Aunt Etta Coffman and that first cousins of Fremont, Frank and Austin Coffman came to visit often. Two brothers of Sarah Patten Coffman, Jackie and Andy Patten came to visit their nephew Fremont. They were age 80 at that time. They could make fingers for a wheat cradle out of sassafras branches. At that age they were still skilled craftsmen. The old house was still there and Fremont mentioned about renting it out to foremen working in the stone quarries in the area."

The 1924-25 Marietta and Washington County, Ohio directory includes the following: Clement (sp) D. Coffman, clay burner, the National Refinery, Rfd 4, Marietta.

The 1931-32 directory lists the following: (1) Clemens D. Coffman, Farm Bureau Supply Co., resident of R.D. 5, Marietta and (2) The Farm Bureau Supply Co. (C.D. Coffman & C.E. Lawton) feed, 227 Gilman Ave.

As mentioned earlier, Clemens was born in the Harmar Community. At the age of 15 he returned to the Coffman farm with his father where he lived until his 1921 marriage. After living for a short time on the Wittekind property at Gravel Bank (Riverview) where oldest child Ruth was born, he returned to the family farm and joined his father in farming.

I was one month old when my mother brought he to Beaver Falls from Marietta, Ohio. My father had come ahead and got a job here. My two older sisters had died as babies in Marietta. Therefore, I am the third child of William Durant Coffman and Elizabeth (Lizzie) Semon. The girls who died were named Florence and Faye Hope. My sister Mildred Marie is now dead, she lived in Silver Springs Maryland and is buried in Washington D.C. She had one son. The next child born to my parents was Paul William...he died at 3 months. My youngest brother was Robert Allen, who lived in Washington, D.C. He is buried in Arlington National Cemetery. He was the father of one daughter.

My husband Raymond G. Thumm parents built this house about 1910. My husband died 11 years ago August 29. We started dating in 1923 and were married in June 1927 just before I was 21 years old on June 26. Raymond worked for the American Bridge Co. out of Pittsburg for 46 years.He became sick on April 18 with what later was diagnosed as cancer and died on Aug 29. He went to New Castle for therapy during the illness. During his retirement he was active in Senior Citizens. He also served 12 years on the Beaver Falls City Council. The three of us moved in with Raymond's parents during the depression in the early 1930's. I have lived here every since.
My health is not real good, I have a girl come in once a week and help with housework. I have someone who cuts the grass and shovels snow. I never did drive.

My father died in 1947 and my mother died in 1948. They were sick for five years. They lived on 16th Street here in Beaver Falls. I took care of them during their sickness. My parents and the three children are all buried in Oak Grove Cemetery in Marietta, Ohio. My mother and father never had a car. When my father died , my mother and I rode on the train with the casket to Marietta. My sister and husband came from Washington D.C. Going to Marietta for the two funerals is the last time I have been to Marietta.

I remember my grandfather Charles Coffman because he had had a long white goatee and he would let me run my fingers through it. It was so soft. He came to Beaver Falls to visit us on the train. He was in the Civil War in the Marietta Troop.

Interview with Margaret Thumm (con't)   May 14, 1990

Uncle Charlie Semon lived at Stanleyville. I was a city girl and never did like to go to the country. A relative Ben and Margaret Matthews came and lived with Mamma for a while here in Beaver Falls. They had two sons Richard is dead and Clarence works for the telephone company here in Beaver Falls now. I remember Paul Semon, the son of Aunt Bessie Semon. Hazel Semon never married,,,she worked as a seamstress at Otto Bros in Mtta.

Our son Henry was born in 1929. He will be 61 on his birthday in October. He had a bicycle accident when age 14 (1943) was in the hospital 5 weeks in Pittsburg. Serious brain injury. He wore a helmet to protect his head graduated from high school after the war, they put a platinum plate in his head and he was in the hospital again for 4 weeks. He now is retired from the American Bridge Co...worked there since he was 22...has been retired 4 years..they give him a pension until he is elgible for Social Security. One month after Henry was 21 he got married. No children for two years then one a year for three years. Later three more children. The oldest four are married. Two boys live around Beaver Falls. Chapter VIII A a 4 d - MINNIE IDA FRANCES SAGER

Minnie Ida Frances Sager was born 24 February 1873 in Washington County, Arlansas to Jacob Newton and Lavina Freese Sager. She married 17 July 1890 at Kingman, Kansas to Charles Henry McCary. Minnie died 20 February 1933 in Hickory Township, Carroll County, Arkansas, with burial in Kingman County, Kansas.

A great grandson of this couple, Charles Cook provided the following information. Minnie and Charles H. McCary were in the Salvation Army in their younger days. Minnie was the religious scholar and Charles got the rank of Captain (Clergy) in the Salvation Army. Because of the near poverty involved, they farmed out some of their children while they moved from place to place. Charles Cook's grandfather Clarence Jesse McCary did not live with his parents at all during his teen years. As a result, he really never had much interest in having a relationship with any of them. There was no animosity, just disinterest. Charles Cook's mother never met her grandmother or grandfather. Sometimes the McCary's jokingly called the Salvation Army, the 'Starvation Army', because they were so poor while in it. Charles Cook continues, my ancestors on both sides of the family followed the frontier and moved nearly every generation. My McCarys' and others made the land rush in the opening of the Cherokee Strip in Oklahoma Territory. I think my parents move down here to Houma Louisiana to take advantage of the oil industry's move to offshore drilling, was another way of staying on the frontier. There does not seem to be any new frontiers for me!

DONATION TRACT LANDS

Donation Tract Lands were given by the Ohio Land Company to males (18 and over) who promised to carry a gun and protect the approaches to the Marietta settlement from the Indians. Each tract was for 100 acres and in some particular instances a man received more than one allotment. The period covered from 1790 to 1820 when the Indians were still to be feared.

The original hand-copied records are in numerous lists copied before 1820 in the large volume TRACT BOOK & ENTRIES - U.S. MILITARY DISTRICT - CONGRESS LANDS - DONATION TRACT - REVERTED LANDS - ORIGINAL PROPRIETORS OF THE OHIO COMPANY PURCHASE. This volume is in the Ohio Land Grant Office of the Auditor of the State of Ohio.

These 100-acre plots are laid out along the creeks or near the settlements and are coded according to land locations.

Irish Families: Their Names, Arms and ORIGINS by Edward MacLysaght

O'CALLAGHAN, (Kelaghan).

The name O'Callaghan, in Irish Ó Ceallacháin, was taken from Ceallachán (Callaghan), King of Munster (d. 952), the eponymous ancestor of the sept. Dispossessed of their original territory in the barony of Kinelea, Co. Cork, after the Anglo-Norman invasion, they acquired a large area of north Co. Cork near Mallow and retained it until again dispossessed under the Cromwellian régime. The leading family of the sept was transplanted then to Co. Clare, where the village of O'Callaghan's Mills bears their name and where they are represented by the family of O'Callaghan (now O'Callaghan-Westropp) of Lismehane. The humbler members of the sept, as was usually the case, were not transplanted; and to-day Co. Cork is the area in which O'Callaghans are chiefly to be found. Although they are mainly concentrated in that area the total number of O'Callaghans and Callaghans in Ireland to-day is about 13,000, which places the name among the forty most numerous in the country. It may here be observed that Callaghan is one of those names in which the resumption of the prefix O, dropped during the period of Gaelic submergence, has been most widely resumed: fifty years ago Callaghans without the O outnumbered those who used the prefix by five to one, while to-day O'Callaghans are much more numerous than Callaghans. 71

In addition to King Callaghan mentioned above there have been a number of distinguished Irishmen of the name, among them Father Richard Callaghan (1738–1807), the Jesuit educationist, two historians in the persons of Edmund O'Callaghan (1797–1883), and John Cornelius O'Callaghan (1805–1883), and Sir Francis O'Callaghan (1839–1909), the engineer. The name is also one of distinction in the records of the Irish Brigades in France. It is a curious fact that the Abbé John O'Callaghan (1605–1654), who was a very prominent Jansenist in France, gives the name of his father, a gentleman of Macroom, Co. Cork, as MacCallaghan. The records of the O'Callaghans in Spain are very extensive in the archives of that country. O'Callaghan is one of the few families of which a modern Chief of the Name is certified by the Genealogical Office. The present holder of that designation is a citizen of Spain.

The name O'Callaghan is sometimes found in Oriel (Armagh, Louth and Monaghan). This is an entirely different sept, Ó Ceileacháin in Irish, properly anglicized O'Kelaghan or Kealahan; this name has become O'Callaghan in some families through a not uncommon process of attraction, but the form Kelaghan is still in use in Co. Westmeath. 72

Chapter IX F

Families often follow patterns in naming of their children. The following naming pattern has been used through the generations by some nationalities:

1. First son named for father's father.
2. Second son named for mother's father.
3. Third son named for the father.
4. Fourth son named for father's oldest brother.
5. First daughter named for mother's mother.
6. Second daughter named for father's mother.
7. Third daughter named for the mother.
8. Fourth daughter named for the mother's oldest sister.

Washington County, Ohio Information

When Washington County was established in July 1788, the boundaries were the beginning on the bank of the Ohio River where Pennsylvania crosses it, running with that line to Lake Erie, along the lake to the Cuyahoga River, thence up said river to the portage between that and the Tuscarawas, down to the crossing place above Fort Laurens, thence westerly to the branch of the Big Miami, south to the Scioto River and back again to the Ohio River. All of the counties within that vast framework were once included in Washington County! Source...Andrews History of Washington County.

Another Callahan that appeared in Washington County history is Rev. James Callahan. The following information is included here to help future family historians to discover how he fits in with our John Callahan family. Notes from Williams History of Washington County, Ohio as follows:

Page 729 - Among the prominent ministers on the Bartlett circuit of Methodist Episcopal Church was the Rev. Callahan. No dates.

Notes from Andrews History of Washington County, Ohio are as follows:

Page 393 - Record of Methodist ministers and their circuit.
James Callaghan (sp) Marietta Circuit 1827.
Robert Callahan Plymouth (Bartlett) Circuit 1871, 1872, 1873.

Washington County, Ohio Marriages include the following:

James Callahan married 24 September 1829 to Sarah Burlinggame.

Marietta Gazette...1 September 1832 edition include the following:

Died, 7 August 1832 at the residence of Mr. Christopher Burlingame of Point Harmar, Homer H. , son of Rev. James and Sarah B. Callahan of Burlington, Ohio aged 1 year, 4 months and 9 days...This lovely bud, so young and fair, Call'd hence by early doom, Just came to show how sweet a flower, In Paradise would bloom.

Marietta Gazette...19 October 1833 edition includes the following:

Rev. James Callahan of the Methodist Episcopal Church died at the residence of C. Burlingame 7 September 1833.

Research by Hugh Coffman reveals that Sarah Burlingame was the youngest daughter of Christopher and Susanna Putnam Burlingame. Susanna was the daughter of General Rufus Putnam. Sarah Burlingame Callahan died 2 March 1835.

Parentage of this Rev. James Callahan unknown. They were married only four years prior to his September 1833 death and her March 1835 death followed. Perhaps they never recovered from the grief of their son's death in August 1832.

Chapter IX J - Unrelated Callihan family (con't)

Research has uncovered the following information about a George Callahan family of Wesley Township, Washington County, Ohio as follows:

> George E. Callahan of Wesley Township, Washington County, Ohio was born 4 June 1836 in Licking County, Ohio. He enlisted in Company G, Ninety-second Regiment 12 August 1862. Was with the regiment for seven months till the sickness at Carthage, Tennessee, where he died 6 March 1863 and was buried in the Hospital Cemetery. Left a widow and three children.

The 1870 census of Wesley Township, Washington County, Ohio includes his widow and 3 children as follows:

Margaret Calahan (sp)	34	Oh	Keep house
Priscilla	11	In	school
Ann	9	In	school
John	7	Oh	school

Notice that the two older children were born in Indiana. No further listing of this family found in Washington County. Perhaps she married and the name identity was lost.

Wood County, West Virginia marriage records include the following:

> George Callahan married 10 September 1819 to Mary Queen.

This information included only because of the same first name.

No clue as to how this Callahan family relates to our John Callahan.

The following article by Louise Zimmer appeared in the 19 August 1987 copy of the Marietta Daily Times titled "Area Found German Customs Astonishing".

The lands of the Ohio Valley served as a melting pot to a vast variety of peoples, and that fact is well-documented and still obvious. But it's also a fact that the blending of these varied and individual cultures did not come about without a bit of friction. The Virginians who lived on the east side of the Ohio River in Wood County referred rather coldly to Belpre as "That Yankee settlement," and the staid New Englanders of the Marietta community lifted an eyebrow now and then at the many "Undesirables" who were filtering into the territory via the river.

Later, the waves of Irish immigrants met with frequent disapproval from those who formed the "establishment" of the day, and when German farmers began to make purchases of the rich bottom lands on both sides of the rivers, some of their customs were just as astonishing. In 1850, a man named Samuel Kercheval wrote of some of the more amazing ways of these particular newcomers.

The first thing our historian noticed was the dress of the women - or rather, the lack of it. It was immediately noticed that they were missing some of the abundant petticoats and other coverings thought to be necessary for those times, regardless of the weather or the work at hand. "The German women..in the summer season, are generally seen with no other clothing than a linen shift and a petticoat," and if this wasn't enough to make you stop and stare, he goes on to say,"..their feet and ARMS are BARE!"

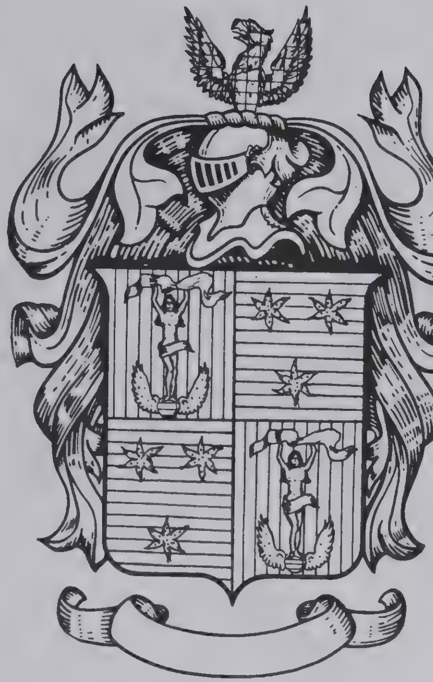
In hay and harvest time, these ladies went out and worked alongside their menfolk in the fields. And some of the women thus employed were equal to the stoutest males in the harvest fields!

The Germanic-speaking people all sounded the same to Anglo-Saxon ears and therefore were inclusively referred to as "Dutch". It was considered odd that the Dutchman's barn was usually the best building on his farm, and he was apt to build it first - even before housing his family. This barn would be large enough for all livestock. This practice of housing all livestock in the winter season was "unquestionably great economy in husbandry" because "it is a rare occurrence to hear of the Dutchman losing any portion of his stock to winter poverty". All their living quarters are alike: single story, chimney in the middle to capture every bit of heat in the wintertime and a large cellar underneath. The German housewife became famous for her fine bread and savory butters.

All these qualities and customs seemed worthy of imitation, but our writer was not so sure about one item, which appeared with great regularity on German tables. It seemed questionable at best, and bordered on being downright offensive. It was known as "Sourkrout". The dissertation on German farmers ened with this positive note: "A Dutchman is proverbial for his patient perseverance in domestic labors..."

Louise Zimmer is retired from the staff of Washington County Public Library.

Coat of Arms



Coffman

Historiography

The Coffman Coat of Arms illustrated left was drawn by an heraldic artist from information officially recorded in ancient heraldic archives. Documentation for the Coffman Coat of Arms design can be found in Rietstap Armorial General. Heraldic artists of old developed their own unique language to describe an individual Coat of Arms. In their language, the Arms (shield) is as follows:

> "Ec.: aux 1 et 4 de gu: a une fortune de carn., tenant au-dessus de sa tete un voile d'arg., posee sur une boule d'azur ailee d'or; aux 2 et 3 d'azur a trois etoiles d'or."

When translated the Arms description is:

> "Quartered: 1 and 4) red with a figure of fortune, flesh colored, holding over her head a silver veil, posed on a blue ball, winged gold; 2 and 3) blue with three six-pointed gold stars."

Above the shield and helmet is the Crest which is described as:

> "Une aigle iss., de sa."

A translation of the Crest description is:

> "A black eagle rising."

Family mottos are believed to have originated as battle cries in medieval times. A Motto was not recorded with the Coffman Coat of Arms.

Individual surnames originated for the purpose of more specific identification. The four primary sources for second names were: occupation, location, father's name and personal characteristics. The surname Coffman appears to be occupational in origin, and is believed to be associated with the Germans, meaning, "the merchant or tradesman." The supplementary sheet included with this report is designed to give you more information to further your understanding of the origin of names. Different spellings of the same original surname are a common occurrence. Dictionaries of surnames indicate probable spelling variations. The most prominent variations of Coffman are Kaufman, Kaufmann and Kauffman.

Information available to us indicates that in 1971 there were approximately 5850 heads of households in the United States with the old and distinguished Coffman name. The United States Census Bureau in 1970 estimated that there were approximately 3.1 persons per household in America which yields an approximate total of 18,135 people in the United States carrying the Coffman name. Although the figure seems relatively low, it does not signify the many important contributions that individuals bearing the Coffman name have made to history.

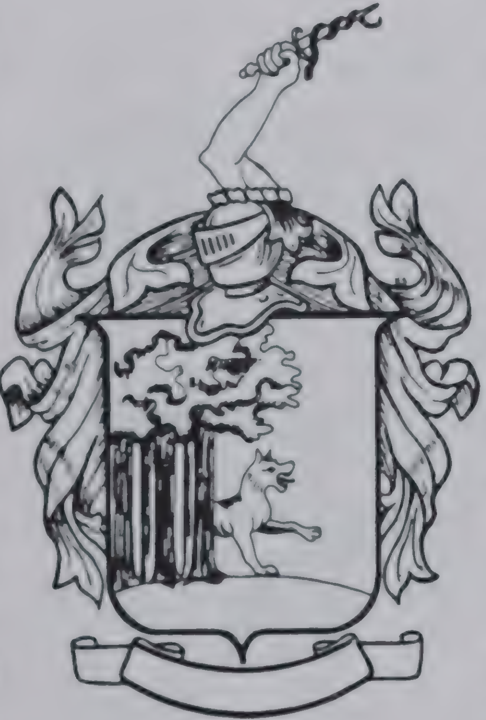
Coat of Arms



Callahan

Historiography

The Callanan Coat of Arms illustrated left was drawn by an heraldic artist from information officially recorded in ancient heraldic archives. Documentation for the Callahan Coat of Arms design can be found in Burke's General Armory. Heraldic artists of old developed their own unique language to describe an individual Coat of Arms. In their language, the Arms (shield) is as follows:

> "Ar. on a mount in base a wolf issuing from the > dexter out of a wood, all ppr."

Above the shield and helmet is the Crest which is described as:

> "A naked arm embowed, holding in the hand a sword,
> with a snake entwined round the blade, the head
> towards the hand, all ppr."

When translated the blazon also describes the original colors of the Callahan Arms and Crest as it appeared centuries ago.

Family mottos are believed to have originated as battle cries in medieval times. A Motto was not recorded with this Callahan Coat of Arms.

Individual surnames originated for the purpose of more specific identification. The four primary sources for second names were: occupation, location, father's name, or personal characteristics. The surname Callahan appears to be patronymical in origin, and is believed to be associated with the Irish, meaning, "grandson of little Callach (contention)." The supplementary sheet included with this report is designed to give you more information to further your understanding of the origin of names. Different spellings of the same original surname are a common occurrence. Dictionaries of surnames indicate probable spelling variations of Callahan to be Callaghan, and Callach. Although bearers of the old and distinguished Callahan name comprise a small fraction of the population there are a number who have established for it a significant place in history. They include: SIR GEORGE ASTLEY CALLAHAN (Callaghan) (1852-1920) English Naval Officer who was in command of the naval brigade that relieved legations in Peking during the Boxer Uprising in 1900. Between 1911 and 1914, he was Commander-in-Chief of the Home Fleets, and between 1917 and 1918, Admiral of the Fleet. JAMES MORTON CALLAHAN (1864-1956) American educator born in Bedford, Indiana. He was Professor and Head of the Department of History and Political Science at West Virginia University. Author of "Confederate Diplomacy", written in 1901, "The American Expansion Policy", written in 1903, and "The Monroe Doctrine and International Relations." MORLEY EDWARD CALLAHAN (Callaghan), was a Canadian novelist and story writer, born in Toronto in 1903. He is the author of "Strange Fugitive", written in 1928, "Native Argosy", written in 1929, and "Inner Journey", written in 1932. JOHN CALLAHAN, was a Clergyman born in Jersey City, New Jersey, in 1866. He was a minister to "down and out" prisoners, and became known as "Father John." For twenty years, he was Chaplain of Tombs Prison. JEREMIAH JOSEPH CALLAHAN, was a college president, born in Bay City, Michigan in 1879. In 1932, he wrote a one volume work entitled, "Euclid or Einotein."
